

That one WE McCandles now holds a lien on the real-estate first above described in the sum of $246.21 for the construction of a sewer, which said lien is an assessment duly made against said real estate.

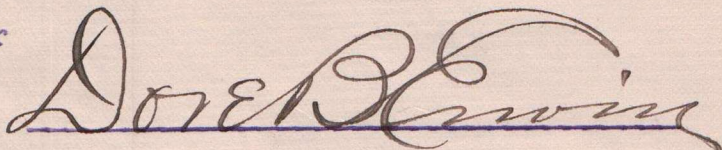

That said W.E. McCandles also holds a lien on the real-estate last above described in the sum of $26'93 for the construction of a sewer, which said lien is an assessment ^{273.14} duly made against said real-estate.

That said real-estate cannot be divided and the interests of each owner thereof set off in severalty without manifest injury thereto.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that she and the defendants be declared the owners of the real-state above described in accordance to the interests above set out, and that partition be awarded and that the same be ordered sold and that a commissioner be appointed to make sale of the same, and that the assessments above mentioned be ordered paid out of the purchase price of said real-estate, and that plaintiff have such other relief as she may be entitled to in law or in equity.
