James B. Lincoln

vs. } Complaint $400.
Thomas J. Follen

James B. Lincoln plaintiff in this action complains Thomas J. Follen defendant in this action and says that on 10 day of November A.D. 1859 the plaintiff purchased of the defendant one printing press type and fixtures cases and materials thereto belonging for the sum of four hundred dollars and paid the said defendant the said sum thereof that at the time of said sale and purchase there was a lien and incumbrance on said press type fixtures cases and materials in favor of one Terry Leakes and Suckley brothers for the sum of three hundred dollars and fifty dollars which said fact of the existence of said mortgage the said defendant artfully concealed from the plaintiff until after the completion of said purchase that afterwards the said defendant promised and intimated incumbrance that the said plaintiff would keep the said property so purchased and not rescind the contract to pay the defendant plaintiff three hundred and fifty dollars when the he the defendant should be thereto afterwards requested to do so but that said defendant when requested has failed to pay the plaintiff said sum or any other sum to the damage of the plaintiff in the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars

5 And the plaintiff further complaints and says the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of three hundred dollars for money had and received of and from the defendant plaintiff as the special instance and regard of the defendant

3 And for further answer complaint the plaintiff says that the said the plaintiff for the sum of four hundred dollars one printing press type cases & fixtures belonging thereto representing that he was the owner thereof and had good right to convey and sell the same and the plaintiff says that said defendant did not own the same and had no right to convey the same to the damage of the plaintiff in the sum of four hundred dollars and the plaintiff demands judgment for the sum of four hundred dollars against the defendant and other proper relief
