Decedent for whom I am charged with the credit, to which of amendments

Subscribed & Sworn to before me this 25th day of August
A.D. 1862 James B. Sprinkle, Clerk

And notice having been given by a publication in the Adams County Democrat a weekly New paper printed & published in said county that said Decedent's Court would be presented to the Court at the September Term thereof for 1862, for Examination and Settlement, which said notice was published, more than ten days prior to the first day of the present term of said Court, to which said notice & Proof of publication are in word & figure following to-wit: (A, C). And the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that all the necessary vouchers have been filed with said Settlement Sheet, & Account correct and that the said Administratrix has completed her trust according to law. It is therefore ordered Adjudged & determined by the Court that the said Administratrix be discharged from all further Accountability to the Court, on account of said Administration and from all further Liability on her Bond as such Administratrix. And as there is no surplus for Distribution the Matter is ordered to be left off the Docket.
