Subscribed and sworn to before me this 4th day of May 1860
James Blincke, Clerk

And the Court after having carefully examined the said Account Current & vouchers thereon and proof of publication find that same is true and has been given according to law and that said account current has been verified by oath and appears to be substantially correct as evidenced the vouchers & it is therefore adjudged by the Court that the said Administrator has completed his trust in this behalf according to law. He is therefore discharged from all further accountability to the Court and from all further liability on his bonds and as there is a surplus a surplus for distribution to wit the sum of one hundred and seventy dollars and forty and cents which sum is paid into the Clerk's office of the Court.
Whereupon William J. Spencer one of the Attorneys of this Court moves the Court for an order of distribution of said surplus at the present term of the Court, which is granted. And it appearing from the evidence of a competent witness that Margaret Baird formerly Margaret Blosser is the widow of said John Blosser deceased and Nancy Beer formerly Nancy Blosser and Abraham Blosser Hester Blosser Adam Blosser John Blosser Sarah Beer formerly Sarah Blosser, Martin Blosser, Christian Blosser, Christiana Elzy formerly Christiana Blosser and Elizabeth Blosser Hannah Blosser Blosser, Nancy Blosser David Blosser, Mary Blosser and the children and the only children of the said John Blosser deceased. And the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the sum of one hundred and seventy nine dollars and forty and cents remains in the hands of James Blincke Clerk of said Court for distribution and the Court being fully advised in the premises do order adjudged and determine that the said Clerk pay the said surplus to the said heirs as follows to wit; To Margaret Baird the sum of fifty nine dollars & eighty cents for her distribution share of said surplus and that he pay to Nancy Beer the sum of seven dollars and ninety seven cents for her distribution share of said surplus, and that he pay Abraham Blosser the sum of seven dollars and ninety seven cents for his share of said surplus

May Term 1860 the 2^o day May 9th 1860

And that he pay Hester Blosser the sum of seven dollars and seventy nine cents for her distributive share of said surplus, and that he pay Adam Blosser the sum of seven dollars and ninety seven cents for his share of said surplus and that he pay John Blosser the sum of seven dollars & ninety seven cents for his distributive share of said surplus. And that he pay Sarah Peery formerly Sarah Blosser seven dollars and ninety seven cents for her distributive share of said surplus and that he pay Martha Blosser seven dollars & ninety seven cents for her share of said surplus and that he pay Christina Blosser seven dollars and ninety seven cents for her share of said surplus and that he pay Elizabeth Blosser seven dollars and ninety seven cents for her share of said surplus. And that he pay Margaret Baird the sum of thirty nine dollars and eighty five cents for the shares of Hannah Blosser, Daniel Blosser, James Blosser, Pierce Blosser and Mary J. Blosser which said last named five heirs and heirs have been kept and supported by the said Margaret Baird & it is therefore ordered that their distributive shares of said surplus be paid to her the said Margaret Baird. And it is further ordered that said Clerk take from said persons Receipts for the said surplus or order to be paid. All of which is ordered adjudged and determined by the Court.

Received of James Robinson Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas the sum of fifty nine dollars and eighty cents in full of my distributive share of the surplus paid into the Clerk's office on final settlement of the estate of John Blosser deceased the 16th day of May 1860
