Isaac Britton

Know all men by these presents that me Benjamin Brittan of the County of Adams and State of Indiana and John Catterlin and William Heath of the County and State aforesaid are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana in the sum of twelve hundred dollars lawful money of the United States to the payment of which well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this Thirty first day of October 1842

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Benjamin Brittan will truly and faithfully discharge the duties and trusts committed to him as Administrator of the Estate of Isaac Brittan late of said County of Adams deceased according to law, and will truly and promptly deliver over to ~~the~~ his successor, to be appointed by the Probate Court of said County should any such successor ever hereafter be appointed all such estate, goods, chattels, and assets, and assign to such successor all such rights and credits as shall of right belong ~~thereto~~ to said Estate upon reasonable demand made thereof, then the above obligation is to be void and of no effect otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in Law
