In the matter of the estate of Arno Brown deceased

Adversus et contra John McConell and Josiah Finnell Administrators

Comes now John McConell and Josiah Finnell Administrators of the estate of the said Arno Brown deceased by David Stradaker ^{their Attorney in this behalf} appearing that said Administrators have filed their final settlement account and vouchers only known to for the final settlement of said estate which said Report and vouchers are in words and figures following to-wit: (C) Quite public notice having been given in the Adams County Democrat a public news paper published in said county weekly for more than ten days prior to the present term of this court that said account current and vouchers would be presented at the present Term of this court for final settlement and allowance which said notice and proof of publication thereof are in words and figures following to-wit: (C) and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said Administrators have procured to the heirs at-law of the said Arno Brown deceased the residue of the assets of said said Estate after paying the debts and liability against the same and have taken a bond from the said heirs at-law to indemnify the said Administrators against loss damage or injury in the matter which said Bond and payment so made to the said heirs is fully approved and confirmed by the court and the court after carefully having examined the said account current and vouchers and inspected the premises finds the same to be correct as eviced by the vouchers. It is therefore ordered adjudged and determined by the court that the said Administrators have completed their said trust according to law; It is therefore ordered adjudged and determined by the court that said account current be finally settled and allowed and that the said Administrators be discharged from all further liability on their said Bond as such and this matter is ordered to be left off the docket.
