In the Adams Circuit Court Nov Term 1966.

In the matter of the estate
of Walter H Chapman, deceased.

Comes now Della M Chapman, Administrator of the estate of Walter H Chapman deceased and would most respect-fully submit to the Court the following final report, and she asks that the same be approved and that she be discharged from further liability of said trust.

CHARGES.

I, am chargeable with the amount as shown by inventory heretofore filed in this cause $1123.72

$1,123.72

And said Administratrix would further show to the Court that in the inventory heretofore filed the same does not show that as the widow of said decedent she took any of the personal property at the appraised value but she avers that in truth and in fact she did take all of said personal property consisting of household goods at their appraised value to wit at the sum of $82.25 and that the same by inadvertance was omitted from said inventory in the proper column but she has charged herself with said sum and taken credit upon the claim for statutory allowance, and she would further show to the Court that the above and forgoing account contains a full true and complete statement of all the funds which have come into her hands as such administratrix and with which she is chargeable as well as all credits to which she is entitled, and she would further show that there are no outstanding claims against said estate to her knowledge except a certain mortgage against certain real estate of said decedent which remains unsold and which claim is now the property of this Administratrix, and which claim is now pending in a certain partition proceeding affecting said land, wherefore she asks that this report be approved in all things.
