4. ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATEA. Payment of Taxes

(1) Inheritance tax schedules have been filed in such estate and it has been determined that no tax is due from such estate.

(2) Co-executrices have filed Indiana Adjusted Gross Income Tax returns and no tax was found due from such estate.

(3) The Co-executrices have filed federal income tax return for such decedent and federal income tax returns covering income received during the administration of such estate, and no tax was due from said estate, and said estate was not subject to United States Estate Tax.

(4) Neither the decedent nor the Co-executrices, in their capacity as Co-executrices, was an employer of labor as that term is defined in the Indiana Employment Security Act and, therefore, no payments under the act are due from this estate.

All expenses of administration have been paid, including the amounts claimed as fees of the Co-executrices and their attorneys for services rendered to date and for the normal anticipated services to be rendered hereafter in closing said estate. Such fees have not been previously allowed by the Court. No claims were filed against such estate and there are no outstanding debts or obligations of such decedent's estate known to Co-executrices.

5. EXECUTION OF PROVISIONS OF WILL

As directed by Item I of decedent's last will and testament, the Co-executrices have paid all of the decedent's just debts, including the expenses of last illness and burial.

The beneficiary named in Item II of decedent's will predeceased the testator and this devise lapsed.

All provisions of the decedent's will have been discharged except for the distribution of the decedent's residuary estate, as directed by Item III of her will.
