And the Administrator shows that the estate of Samuel D. King left as his sole heirs May E. Nelson, Sylvia D. King and Corilla M. Dwyer, his daughters. That the testator made a will of and hereinafter full and true and the said will is not in dispute. That the said estate is not in dispute, paying all debts and funeral expenses, and dividing between the said three persons the personal estate. This was over 4 years ago. That in such division of personalty, May E. Nelson received from Inventory $431 00 Mrs. Dwyer received from, and interest, 1000 00 Sylvia D. King received the balance of notes described in Inventory.

The said report being approved and ordered to collect and make a full and true account of all monies and credits with which I am chargeable as such Administrator, and credits in full for payment of same, and now ask to be discharged from further trust as such Administrator so help me God.

State of Indiana, Adams County, ss.

I, Charles C. Dwyer, Administrator of the estate of Samuel D. King, do hereby swear that the foregoing report contains a full and true account of all monies and credits with which I am chargeable as such Administrator, and credits in full for payment of same, and now ask to be discharged from further trust as such Administrator so help me God.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, the 25th day of February, 1865.

John A. Lusk, Notary Public.
