Third Day September Term Probate Court, Sept 12th 1865

Molter of the Estate of $\frac{3}{3}$
Frederick Summer $\frac{3}{3}$

20 Comes now the Administrator in this behalf and presents his final settlement account accompanied by proper vouchers, which report is in these words (V.L.) and the Court after examining said report and vouchers, find the same correct in all things. And that said Administrator having fully completed his trust is hereby discharged from all accountability to the Court or liability on his bond. And the Court further find that said Administrator after settling said estate has remaining a surplus of Thirty-six dollars and two cents ($36.02) to be distributed among the heirs at law of said estate. And the heirs and distributees not being present or represented by attorney or Guardian to prove their heirship, the Court orders that the Clerk give the legal notice required by law, for them to appear at the next term of this Court, prove their heirship, when distribution will be made, and this cause is continued.
