And the Court after having carefully examined said Appraisement and being fully advised in the premises finds that the value of said property of the said decedent both real & personal at the time of his death did not exceed three hundred dollars in value. It is therefore ordered adjudged & determined by the Court that all the property of the said decedent both Real and personal be delivered over to his widow — discharged from all debts of the said decedent, except mortgage on real estate, the expenses of his last sickness and funeral and costs of this last sickness — proceeding And that the Clerk of this Court give to said widow a certificate to that effect.
