WEDDING ANNOUNCED TO WILLING WORKERS BAND

The approaching marriage of Miss Martha Mazelin and Clayton Grubb was announced to the members of the Willing Workers Band, of the Evangelical Mennonite church, last evening. The wedding will take place May 27.

The meeting held at the home of Mrs. Menno Stauffer on West Franklin street, was opened by singing the theme song after which the group was led in prayer by Miss Millicent Litwiller. The evening was devoted to rehearsals for the annual Mother's Day Program on May 13.

Refreshments closed the evening's activities, under the leadership of Mrs. Fanny Amstutz and Mrs. Menno S. Stauffer.

The following were present: Arlene Habegger, Virginia Dubach; Laura, Lydia, Maryann and Hazel Neuenschwander; Coleen, Vera, Darlene, Alice, Marjorie and Carol Yoder; Jeanette Strahm; Pauline Schwartz; Martha Mazelin and Mrs. Gordon Augsburg.

MARYANN WULLIMAN WED IN SEATTLE

Former Local Girl Marries Howard Roat In Church Service

Announcement was made here today of the wedding on May 5 of Miss Maryann Wulliman, of Seattle, Washington, and Howard Roat, also of Seattle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wulliman of Berne and Mr. Roat's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roat of Seattle. The vows were received at the Queen Ann United Presbyterian church in Seattle, the Rev. Clifford Smith, pastor of the church, officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by Joel F. Habegger, of Seattle, formerly of this place. Her attendant was Margaret Chezun and Jack Everett attended Mr. Roat. The bride wore an ankle length gown of white lace with gathered waist, net yoke, beaded Dutch cap and shoulder length veil, white linen shoes and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

About 80 relatives and friends attended the reception held in the church basement following the wedding.

The bride is employed in the First National Bank in Seattle and Mr. Roat is part owner of a large super market in Seattle.

The couple took a wedding trip (cut off)
