

(Handwritten: Monday, May 28, 1934)

GETS GOOD POSITION

Freeman Burkhalter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Menno Burkhalter of this place and a Senior at Northwestern University, has been engaged for a splendid teaching position in a Methodist seminary academy at Boaz, Alabama. Mr. Burkhalter is received his bachelor of music degree this spring and is a very talented musician. At Alabama school he will supervise the music training of some 500 students.

***

(Handwritten: May 17, 1934)

GETS CIRCUS JOB

Charles Hirschy, formerly of this community and well known here was successful in obtaining a position with the circus that performed at Decatur last Saturday. He is expected to travel with the circus all summer, assisting in putting up the tent and other odd jobs.

BUYS HOUSE AT MONROE

Roy Price of Decatur, who is associated in business with Cloverleaf Creameries, Inc., has purchased a house at Monroe formerly occupied by a Mr. Oliver and family. Mr. Oliver was postmaster at Monroe until several months ago. Mr. Price and family will move to Monroe in the near future.

*****

(Handwritten: Thursday, May 17, 1934)

INFANT DIES

John Snyder, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Snyder of near Monroe, died shortly after birth Wednesday morning, May 16. It was the first child in the family. Funeral services were held at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday and burial was in the Ray Cemetery.

*****

BIRTHS

Grant and Velma Opliger Smith are the proud parents of a daughter, Carolyn Sue, since May 16. Mother and infant are being cared for at the Adams County Memorial Hospital.

Born to Harmon and Josephine Reusser Bagley, a daughter, Gretchen (cut off)