

1934 Scrapbook, image 066

(Handwritten date of Thursday, June 7, 1934)

BIRTHS

A son, named Christian, was born today, Thursday, June 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Schwartz of east of town.

Hubert and Cladie E. Davis Irvin of near Decatur are the parents of a son since Wednesday, June 6.

*****

(Handwritten date of Thursday, June 7, 1934)

NEWS REPORTER TO WED TONIGHT

Miss Irene Burley To Be Bride of Jesse E. Clark

Announcement is made of the approaching wedding of Miss Irene Burley to Jesse E. Clark, both of this place. The wedding is to be an event of this evening, it is understood. The couple have secured a marriage license at the office of the county clerk.

Miss Burley is news reporter at the Berne Review. Her position will be taken by Miss Viola Reppert, 1934 graduate of the Berne high school.

Mr. Clark is a former Hartford twp. young man and is employed as a barber at Gid Riesen's barber shop here. He is a son of Wm. Clark.

Miss Burley has been employed at the Berne Review since November, 1933. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burley of Berne.

The couple will live at the home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fox and children, it is understood.

*****

(Handwritten date of Thursday, June 7, 1934)

YOUNG WOMAN SUFFERS STROKE

Miss Emma Nussbaum is Heat Prostration Victim

Miss Emma Nussbaum, daughter of Sol E. Nussbaum of Monroe twp., living several miles northwest of Berne, is the first heat prostration victim reported in this community this year. Miss Nussbaum was working in the garden Tuesday when she was suddenly stricken by the severe heat. She collapsed and became unconscious.

Miss Nussbaum was in a serious condition for several hours and a local doctor was called who gave medical attention. She is reported to be recovering from the attack.

Adams County Historical Museum Scrapbooks

1934 Scrapbook, image 066

Transcribed by Karin King

October 6, 2012