SCHWARTZ-STEURY

Miss Agnes Schwartz and Amos Steury were united in marriage at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Easter at the Reformed Church parsonage at Bluffton. The pastor, Rev. Matthew Worthman officiated at the single ring ceremony. The groom's brother, Calvin Steury, was best man and Miss Esther Liechty was bridesmaid.

The bride chose a violet wedding gown with white accessories. She carried white Easter lilies. Miss Liechty was dressed in light blue with pink and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Both the groom and best man wore dark blue.

Mrs. Steury is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Schwartz of northwest of Berne and has been staying at home for some time. She took an academic correspondence course and attended Ball state college at Muncie and taught at the A. C. Parochial school for three years. She has also been employed at the Nussbaum Novelty Company.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Rudolph Steury of northwest of Berne. He owns and manages the Blue Creek Dairy at Bluffton.

The newly-weds have taken up housekeeping at their newly furnished home at 726 W. South Street, Bluffton.

A six o'clock wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's uncle David D. Schwartz at Fort Wayne. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Schwartz, Calvin Steury, Misses Anna, Lorena and Esther Liechty, David Liechty, Ervin Inniger, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Steury and family and the newly married couple.
