

1936 Scrapbook, image 036

Rural School Taught by Jeanette Rich

Publishes Interesting School Paper

Wed. Nov 25, 1936

Good, better best,

Never let it rest,

Till your good is better

And your better best,

comes from well-done Mimeographed "Winchester Chatter" published by school No. 3 in Monroe township, five miles north and one mile west of Berne and taught by Miss Jeanette Rich.

The interesting school paper has an attractive Thanksgiving cover designed by Irene Zurcher.

Irene Habegger is editor of the paper which has received many favorable comments, including those from C.E. Stricker, Co. Superintendent of schools, Edwin Gilliom. Others on the editorial staff are: Assistant editor, Iva Zurcher; Sports, Carl Zurcher; Jokes and poems, Helen Habegger; Scholastic reporter, Aretha Klopfenstine; Eighth grade report, Wayne Hirschy; Seventh grade reporter, Arthur Zurcher; Sixth grade reporter, Paul Zurcher; Fifth grade reporter, Glenn Hastine; eighth grade reporter, Daniel Schwartz, Primary reporter, Corrine Habegger; Artist, Irene Zurcher; Secretary, Silva Hirschy; Treasurer, Lester Kaehr; Salesman, Gorman Fox... (Image cut off.)

PASTOR RETURNS

Sept 8, 1936

(PHOTO)

The Rev. H. W. Franklin, pastor of the United Brethren church of this city, has been re-assigned to the local charge, the appointment having been announced at the close of the annual conference Sunday at Winona Lake.

(PHOTOS of floats)

Aug 2-8, 1936

Spectacular illuminated floats were features of the Centennial parade held on the streets of Decatur Wednesday night. Upper left, Decatur queen and her court of honor; upper right, Miss Adams County and the Saxonaders Orchestra; lower left, General Electric float; lower right, Decatur Mouse Lodge display.

NEW ARRIVAL

Monday, July 20, 1936

Arnos and Leah Schwartz Graber are the parents of a daughter, Elizabeth, born Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Graber reside in Wabash township.

Miss Mary Macy Weds Robert Freitag in Quiet Ceremony Thursday Evening
Friday, Oct 30, 1936

The marriage of Miss Mary Macy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Macy, 711 Winchester street , and Robert W. Freitag of Bluffton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Freitag of Preble, was solemnized Thursday night at eight-thirty o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Charles A. Prugh, pastor of the Zion Reformed church, officiated at the ceremony and read the single ring service.

The wedding was performed before an improvised altar, on each side of which was a tall white candelabrum bearing lighted tapers. Baskets of white chrysanthemums were placed before an arch covered with oak leaves and white pompoms with white showers.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Walter J. Krick sang "I Love You" by Grieg and "At Dawning," by Cadman. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Louise Hanbold, who also played softly during the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of wine colored velvet fashioned over princess lines, with a belt of the same material image cut off.

Adams County Historical Museum
1936 Scrapbook, image 36
Transcribed by Danielle Warmuth