BELVA HUSER BRIDE SUNDAY

Weds Dwight Schnepf in Ceremony at Rufus Huser Home

Miss Belva Huser became the bride of Dwight Schnepf in a ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Huser southeast of Berne. Rev. V. B. Ratcliff, of Chattanooga, Ohio, pastor of the Springhill M. E. Church, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Miss Carol Huser, the bride's sister, and Kermith Yoder attended the couple.

About 35 relatives and friends witnessed the wedding. The Huser home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns and lilacs.

Catherine Mettler played the wedding march, and Emerson Neuenschwander sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile" before the ceremony.

For the occasion the bride was pretty in a gown of white satin, with princess line. She wore a white headgear and white footwear, and carried a bouquet of white lilies, lilies-of-the-valley, and forget-me-nots.

The bridesmaid wore a mousseline ...dress, and white footwear, and carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons.

Jeanette Rawley served as flower girl, and Alice Huser as ring bearer. Both wore pink dresses.

Both the groom and best man appeared in dark suits.

The bride is well and favorable known here. She has been employed for the last several years at the Berne Manufacturing Company, and previous to that she did house work at the Henry Reusser home.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Schnepf of north of Monroe. He graduated from the Decatur high school with the class of 1931, and is engaged in farming on his father's farm. He is also well and favorably known. The couple will be at home on the farm, with Mr. Schnepf's parents.

Following the wedding, a reception was held, after which the couple left on a short honeymoon trip.

2 EMPLOYEES OF BERNE REVIEW ARE MARRIED

Miss Jean Egly, Homer Augsburger Married Saturday

CELIA SPRUNGER BRIDE SUNDAY

Two employees of the Berne Review were married over the weekend. Homer Augsburger and Miss Jean H. Egly were married Saturday and Miss Celia Sprunger became the bride of Herman Hilty, of Bluffton, Ohio, Sunday.

AUGSBURGER-EGLY

The Augsburger-Egly wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at the parsonage of St. John's Reformed Church at Vera Cruz. The wedding was a simple, but very impressive affair, Rev. H. H. Meckstroth, pastor of St. John's church, officiating at the double ring ceremony. The couple was unattended.

The bride appeared in a robin egg blue dress, hat and gloves to match with white footwear. She carried a spray of white snapdragons and lily of the valley flowers. The groom wore a suit of oxford grey.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Egly of Berne. She graduated from the Petroleum high school with the class of 1931. She has been employed at Eichenberger's grocery store here for some time. Mrs. Augsburger is widely known and has a large host of friends.

Mr. Augsburger is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Augsburger of west of town. He graduated from the Hartford high school with the class of 1927, and has been employed as linotype operator at the Berne Review for several years. He has been active in Christian Endeavor work and is also well and favorably known.

The couple is at home in an apartment in the Ben Sprunger home on North Jefferson street.

HILTY-SPRUNGER

Miss Celia Sprunger became the bride of Herman Hilty, in a beautiful ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sprunger, at 2:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Dr. S. K. Mosiman, former president of Bluffton College, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Miss Winifred Sprunger, the bride's sister, and Marvin Hilty, brother of the groom, attended the couple. The bride was given away in marriage by her father.

The Sprunger home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with lilacs and other flowers.

Miss Kathryn Thutt of Buda, Ill., played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Gordon Hilty, brother of the groom, sang two solos, "At Dawning" and "Because". Miss Elda Flueckiger accompanied Mr. Hilty on the violin for the first number, "At Dawning".

The bride appeared in a white net dress, floor length. She wore white sandals and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore (cut off)

MANLEY'S NEIGHBORS AID

Mrs. C. O. Manley, near Monroe, died last week leaving the husband and 13 children and with the farm work neglected because of the illness of wife and mother. Monday a number of neighbors met at the Manley farm with tractors, teams, drills and other equipment, and by evening had the beets, beans and corn planted and the work entirely caught up. Manley is farming 160 acres.
