WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED HERE TODAY

Miss Genevieve Smith Bride of Roy Strickler

Miss Genevieve Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith of West Main Street, became the bride of Roy E. Strickler, in a ceremony performed this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the local Evangelical church. Rev. M. O. Herman, pastor of the church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Miss Catherine Mettler and Maurice Smith, brother of the bride, attended the couple.

The bride wore a tailored ensemble in brown and white, with a frock of brown and white crepe with a contrasting brown coat of light weight wool. She wore a large picture hat of brown and her footwear was brown and white.

The bride wore a shoulder corsage of sweet peas and gardenias.

The bridesmaid wore a red and white tailored dress, with white accessories.

The bride graduated from the Berne high school with the class of 1933 and has been employed at the Berne Witness company for two and one-half years, serving as society reporter and bookkeeper.

Mr. Strickler is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Strickler of Monroe. He graduated from the Monroe high school with the class of 1934 and is now associated with the electrical appliance department of the Sears Roebuck store at Fort Wayne.

The couple left this afternoon on a short honeymoon trip and will be at home soon at 2332 1-2 Oliver street, Fort Wayne.

DEATH TAKES JACOB WAHLI

Former Resident of This Community Dies at Infirmary

Jacob Wahli, aged 64, for many years a resident of this community, died at 5 o'clock Saturday morning at the Adams county infirmary. Death was caused by dropsy and complications, from which he had suffered for many years.

Wahli was taken to the infirmary five years ago. He had been living by himself in a shack on the Frank Cottrell place southeast of Berne. Wahli was born in Switzerland and came to this country when a small boy. He worked several years for Peter Sprunger and for other farmers in the community. He then went to Ohio for several years, and then returned to this community. He was a laborer and besides working for various farmers, did odd jobs.

Wahli is survived by several nephews and nieces, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Wahli, widow of Abe Wahli. Abe Wahli was a brother of the deceased.

The body was brought to the Bierie and Yager undertaking establishment here where it was prepared for burial. The funeral was held this forenoon at 10 o'clock at the L. L. Yager (cut off)
