

1936 Scrapbook, image 83

Monday, April 12, 1937

P.T.A. SPEAKER

Word Pronouncer for the Spelling Contests

MR. R. NELSON SNIDER

(PHOTO PROVIDED)

Thursday, July 27, 1939

MRS. R. NELSON SNIDER

Mrs. R. Nelson Snider was recently re-elected president of Gamma Province of Kappa Delta at an annual convention of the national college sorority at Yellowstone National Park. (PHOTO PROVIDED)

Prominent seniors at the Monroe High School this year include Elfrieda Liechty and Louise Niles, shown above. Miss Niles will be valedictorian at commencement exercises, and Miss Liechty, salutatorian, as a result of maintaining highest scholastic average during their four years in school. (PHOTO PROVIDED)

Friday, April 13, 1937

AUTO VICTIM'S FUNERAL SET

Rites Saturday Morning At Monroeville Church For Daniel O'Shaughnessey

Funeral rites for Daniel O'Shaughnessey, aged 26, of near Monroeville, who died late Tuesday afternoon at the Adams County Memorial Hospital in Decatur of injuries suffered last Saturday night in an automobile accident in Decatur, will be held Saturday morning.

Services will be held at 8:15 a.m. at the home of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Shaughnessey, two miles northeast of Monroeville and at 9 a.m. at the St. Rose Catholic Church in Monroeville. The Rev. Theodore Fettig will officiate. Burial in the Monroeville Catholic Cemetery.

The accident victim resided with his parents. The body was removed to the residence this afternoon from Painter Brothers' Funeral Home in Monroeville.

INJURIES CAUSE INFECTION.

Mr. O'Shaughnessey's death resulted from infection caused by compound fractures of both legs. He also suffered skull injuries. Physicians amputated his left leg at midnight Wednesday night after infection developed.

Floyd Rison, aged 34, 1724 ½ Oakland Street, this city was killed instantly in the same accident. Three others were hurt. Mrs. Rison and Raymond Papenbrock, aged 31, of near Monroeville, were reported improved at the Decatur hospital, Mrs. Papenbrock was released from the hospital Wednesday afternoon.

CAR HIT CONCRETE BLOCK.

The car in which the five Allen County residents were riding was being driven by Papenbrock when it crashed into a cement signal block at the railroad crossing on Mercer Avenue in Decatur.

Surviving Mr. O'Shaughnessey are his parents; four brothers, Edward, Robert, Charles and John Jr. all at home, and four sisters, Mrs. Rison, of this city; Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, of Decatur; Mrs. Mary Smith, of Cleveland, O., and Miss Betty Jane O'Shaughnessey, at home. (PHOTO PROVIDED)

Thursday, April 8, 1937

HELPS FIND PLANE

Government Meteorologist Eric L. Hardy, who was Fort Wayne's weather man for five years, from 1927 to 1932, was with the airplane searching party which sighted the wreckage of the TWA air liner which crashed on Mt. Baldy, Near Phoenix, Ariz.

The searching plane was piloted by Maj. A.D. Smith, TWA veteran pilot. With him were a co-pilot, two newspaper reporters, two photographers and Mr. Hardy, who is now stationed at Albuquerque, N.M. (PHOTO PROVIDED)

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 83

Transcribed by Deb & Michelle Schevenius