

1936 Scrapbook, image 112

(Handwritten: Friday, November 27, 1936)

JACK PARR GETS DIVORCE

Lavera Parr Has Maiden Name of Lavera Habegger Restored

Last Wednesday afternoon, in the Superior court, No. 1, Allen county, Jack R. Parr obtained a divorce from Lavera Parr. The latter had her maiden name of Lavera Habegger restored.

The couple were married on Thanksgiving day last year, November 28, and separated soon afterwards. The couple formerly lived in this (cut off)

*****

(Handwritten: Friday, November 27, 1936)

BUYS WINTEREGG FARM

Arnold Simon, local business man, has purchased the Noah Winteregg farm west of Berne. Mr. Simon and family plan to move on the farm in the near future.

*****

(Handwritten: Thursday, January 14, 1937)

The twin boys born to Mr. and Mrs. L. Reuben Schwartz last Monday morning have been named Alvin Wayne and Albert Dwayne.

Mrs. Caleb P. Habegger was dismissed Monday from the Adams County Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for some time.

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 112

Transcribed by Karin King