

1936 Scrapbook, image 012

CROSSING TRAGEDY ROCKS FAMILY OF 12 IN ONE

Photo

Bodies of the McBride family in their caskets at the Fort Wayne morgue.

ROSE BEER SURPRISED

Feb 27, 1936

Rose Beer was pleasantly ... of her birthday Monday, a group of her co-workers ... to her home and surprised... The evening was spent in ...games and visiting. Mrs. ...the recipient of many ...of ham-salad sandwiches, pickles, ice cream, wafers, and coffee was served to the following guests: Misses Frieda and Wilma Bran..., Ruby Green, Roberta ..., L?etta Sprunger, Mary ... Stauffer, Lucy Graber, Velma ..., Mrs. Clifton Kohler.

EMILIE CRIST IS BRIDE

Former supt. At Hospital Weds W.J. Archbold of Decatur
1936

Decatur, Mar. 12 - The marriage of Miss Emilie Crist of Woodburn and W.J. Archbold of this city was solemnized Sunday afternoon in Elkhart at the home of Rev. Somerville Light, former Decatur pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fueling of Woodburn were the attendants.

Mrs. Archbold was formerly superintendent of the Adams county Memorial hospital and resided here a number of years.

MENNONITE BISHOP CLAIMED BY DEATH

Tues., Mar 10, 1936

John Schmucker, Retired a Farmer of Milan Twp., To be Buried Thursday.

John Schmucker, a bishop of the old order of Mennonites and a retired farmer of Milan Township, Allen County, died of paralysis Monday at 1:30 pm at his home on State road No. 14 in Milan Township. He has been an invalid the last two years.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 9 am (sun time) at the residence. Burial in the Amish Cemetery west of Harlan.

Mr. Schmucker was born in Howard County. Indiana, and came to Allen County 62 years ago. He was married to Rosina Graber 62 years ago. Surviving are the widow; six sons, Peter, Christ, John, Daniel, Noah and Samuel article cut-off.

Adams County Historical Museum

1936 Scrapbook, image 012

Transcribed by Danielle Warmuth