Case is Venued to Circuit Court Here

A bastardy case brought by the state of Indiana on the relation of Mildred M. Burkhart against Ralph Funk has been venued from the court of justice of the peace John G. Kelly to the Adams circuit court. The case was tried in the justice of peace court, December 12 and a finding was rendered against the defendant, Ralph Funk, who then appealed the case to the Adams circuit court.

The child, of which Mr. Funk is alleged to be the father, has been adopted by a Fort Wayne family, according to evidence given in the justice of the peace trial.
