MILDRED TUMBLESON WEDS VICTOR KUHN

A quiet but impressive wedding ceremony was performed Sunday afternoon, February twenty-sixth, at the home of the bride's parents, when Miss Mildred Tumbleson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Tumbleson of Jefferson township was united in marriage to Victor Kuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuhn of Chattanooga, Ohio, in a single ring ceremony by Rev. Baltzell of Celina, Ohio.

The couple was attended by Cleo Leigh of Rockford, Ohio and Eugene Lininger of Chattanooga, Ohio, the latter a cousin of the groom. The bride wore a floor length dress of peach lace with full sheered sleeves and a high waist-line caught up with a bouquet of flowers. She wore black patent leather sandels. The bridesmaid wore a light blue chiffon dress made of similar lines as the bride's dress and carried a bouquet of red roses. The groom and best man were attired in spruce blue and gray suits respectively.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Kuhn and daughter, Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Lininger and daughter, Genevieve, Miss Ethel Tumbleson, Robert McBride of Decatur, Harry Essex of Monroe, Cleo Leigh, Eugene Lininger, Rev. Baltzell, Mr. and Mrs. Tumbleson and sons, Paul, Junior, Dale, Lyle and Rolland and daughters, Ruth and Berneice, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kuhn.

In the evening the couple left for their newly furnished home at Chattanooga, Ohio.
