

(Handwritten date: Monday, 1939)

BUYS TRICKER FARM

DECATUR, March 13 - Hubert Gase, of northeast of Decatur, purchased the Elmer E. Tricker farm, south of Decatur on the Mud Pike, Friday at public auction.

The farm, described as one of the best in this vicinity, brought a price of $72 per acre. The farm comprises 90 acres. Household goods and livestock were also sold at auction.

Mr. Tricker and his family will reside on Monroe street temporarily (cut off)

*****

(Handwritten date: Tuesday, March 14, 1939)

MILLER

Samuel D. Miller, 72, Amish farmer, died at 6 p.m. Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Levi Miller, a mile and a half west of Milan Center in Milan Township. Surviving, besides the daughter, are the widow, Anna; a son, Daniel; five grandchildren; a brother, Daniel; and three sisters, Mrs. Anna Graber and the Misses Mary and Fanny Miller, all of Milan Township.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the son. Burial in the Amish Cemetery near Grabill. The Roscoe Walter Funeral Home, of Spencerville, is in charge.

Adams County Historical Society 1939 Scrapbook, Image 012
Transcribed by Karin King