

(Handwritten date: Monday, March 6, 1939)

Those from out of town who attended the funeral of Mrs. Abraham Egly were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Egly, daughters Lois and Dorothy of Forrest, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Simon Egly, Ray Dunlap, son Bernard Ray, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Egly, and Mrs. Ida Stucky of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rocke of South Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tyndall, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stucky and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Stucky, all of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stucky and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gerig of Grabill, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Stucky and son of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stucky of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stucky of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Stucky of New Haven, Mrs. Lena Stucky of Vera Cruz and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Klopfenstein and daughters Verona and Florence of Woodburn.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Abe Egly, aged 76, who died Thursday in a hospital at Dalton, Ga. The services were held at the West Missionary church and burial was made in the Defenseless Mennonite cemetery. The body arrived in Berne Friday noon. Ben Sprunger remained in the hospital at Dalton to further recuperate from his injuries, received some time ago, while he and Mrs. Sprunger, Mrs. Egly and Mrs. Dan Stucky were on their way to Florida. Mrs. Egly's death followed a heart attack. Mrs. Ben Sprunger left this afternoon to return to Dalton, Ga.

(Handwritten date: Monday, Feb. 27, 1939)

DEATH TAKES LEAH SCHWARTZ

Infant Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Schwartz Dies

Leah Schwartz, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Schwartz, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning at their home on the Dick Stahl farm southeast of Berne. The child was born Jan. 7, 1939, a daughter of Jacob and Margaret Hilty Schwartz. The baby had been ill for several days.

The parents and four brothers and sisters survive.

The funeral was held today at the home, with burial in the Amish church cemetery.