NOAH SCHROCK GETS COUNTY BARN CONTRACT

Noah Schrock of this place was awarded the contract and dairy barn at the Adams County infirmary, on his low bid of $4,361.92. Two other bids submitted were: Schwartz Bros., $4,388.47 and Sam Nussbaum, $4,855.25.

The barn will replace one destroyed by fire in July. It will be a frame structure, 36 by 80 feet, two stories high. The bid includes stanchions, partitions and other inside requirements, the barn complete, except painting. The commissioners also awarded contract for a new cistern at the county jail to Phil Sauer, Decatur contractor, on his bid of $220 for a six-inch wall.

FOUR MARKERS TO BE PLACED
Four More Historical Markers To Be Placed This Week

The erection of four more government markers here this week was announced today by French Quinn, local historian, who was leader of the movement toward setting up the markers.

Adams county highway workmen will erect the markers this week. Placing of the markers will be done under the direction of four persons at the request of Mr. Quinn.

Rev. Joseph J. Seimetz will supervise the placing of the marker for the site of the first church (cut off)
