

(Handwritten date: Saturday, December 14, 1940)

DR. JAMES BURK TO TAKE PRACTICE OF DR. DANIELS FOR ONE YEAR

Dr. James Burk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avon Burk of this city, will begin the practice of medicine and surgery in Decatur, beginning January 10, it was announced today.

Dr. Burk will assume the practice of Dr. R. E. Daniels, who is leaving Sunday for South Carolina for a years' military training in the reserve officers' training corps as provided by the act of congress ...hospital of Chicago, the Cottage hospital at Santa Barbara, California and the Jennie Edmondson hospital of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Dr. and Mrs. Burk will establish their residence in this city.

(Handwritten date: Sunday, December 15, 1940)

(Photo) ANOTHER HOOSIER WEARS CORN CROWN - Smiling despite worry over his sick children back at his home farm near Shelbyville, is Charles N. Fischer, pictured with his 10 ears of corn that won him the title of corn king of the world at the International Live Stock Exposition's grain show in Chicago. (Associated Press.)

Adams County Historical Museum
1940-1941a Scrapbook, image 13-14
Transcribed by Karin King