LOCAL LAD AT DISNEY STUDIO

Carl Wilhelm Accepts Position With Walt Disney Studios

Carl Wilhem's faith in himself and his letter acquaintance with Walt Disney, world famous originator of Mickey Mouse and other comic characters, has earned him a position in the Walt Disney Studios in Hollywood, Cal.

Mrs. John Wilhem, of this city, mother of the youth, has received a letter from her son. He stated that his is now employed in the Disney Studios and is the only deaf person of the 700 artists employed there.

Carl was enthusiastic in his letter, stating that he personally met Mr. Disney and several movie stars. Mr. Disney was very kind to him and it wasn't long until he had employment in the studio.

The Decatur young man told his mother that he was enjoying the weather and scenery and that his work "was hard and fast." Friends in this city will be glad to learn of his employment with the Disney Studios, since it was his ambition to draw and become a commercial artist.
