SOL MOSSER DIES TODAY

Prominent Farmer and Jersey Breeder Dies at 12:45 P.M.

Solomon Mosser, aged 64, well known breeder of high grade Jersey cattle, died at his home east of Geneva, today at 12:45 o'clock. Death came suddenly and was caused by coronary thrombosis.

The farmer had been ailing with heart disease during the past six weeks and confined to his bed for only a week.

The decedent was born August 17, 1876, as the son of the late Solomon and Elizabeth Schlatter Mosser in Hartford township where he has resided most of his life.

He was married to Elma Burley, who with the following children survive: Mrs. Russell Stamm of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Erwin Moore of Decatur, Solomon, Jr., of near Berne, Ardon of Portland, David at home, Catherine of Fort Wayne and Grace at home.

Brothers and sisters surviving are: Mrs. Lydia Mertz of Berne, Noah of Portland, Joel of Oklahoma, John of Montana, and Mrs. Ellen Slabaugh of Canton, Ohio.

Mr. Mosser was at one time a stock breeder, specializing in Jersey cows and was active in the state organization holding various offices. He was regarded as a prosperous farmer in this community.

The funeral arrangements were not made at the time of going to press, but it will probably not be held before Thursday.

YOUNG COUPLE WED SUNDAY

Kenneth Neuhauser Wed To Miss Elsie [sic] Plummer Sunday

The marriage of Miss Olive May Plummer, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Plummer of Tocsin and Mr. Kenneth Neuhauser, son of Mrs. Della Neuhauser took place at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in the parsonage of the United Brethren Church in Craigville. The bride's pastor, the Rev. Charles A. Moore, officiated, using the single ring service.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of turquoise blue sheer wool with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations edged delicately with wine.

Mrs. Wendell Plummer, of Elgin, Illinois, was matron-of-honor and wore a wine silk crepe with rhinestone clip and black accessories. Bronze snapdragons formed her corsage. Her husband, Wendell Plummer, the bride's brother, served as best man.

The bride graduated from the Ossian high school in 1938. Mr. Neuhauser is a graduate from Berne high school with the class of 1935 and has since been associated with the Hoosier Condensed Milk Company at Bluffton.

The newly wedded couple will reside at Tocsin with the bride's mother.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Della Neuhauser (cut off)
