

Monday, June 8, 1942

Miss Marguerite Lewellyn is Bride

Former Monroe Teacher is Wed to Oka Gaiser Sunday

Miss Marguerite Lewellyn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lewellyn of Monroe became the bride of Oka Gaiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gaiser of Warren, in a ceremony which took place at the Monroe Methodist Church last evening following the evening service at which Rev. R. F. Hart delivered his farewell sermon. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rice, of Monroe.

The bride is well known in the county for her activity in Christian work and graduated from Ball State College at Muncie. She taught in the primary department of the Monroe Schools for many years. The bridegroom is a farmer.

Following a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Gaiser will reside on a farm near Warren.

Wednesday, July 15, 1942

BIRTH

Judith Ellen is the name of the baby girl born to Claude and Margaret Lee Biberstein on Monday.

Eli and Audrey Crosbie Sprunger are the parents of a baby girl, Sharon Sue, born on Monday at the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Sprunger formerly lived here. The child is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sprunger.

Adams County Historical Museum

1942A Scrapbook, image 61

Transcribed by Jim Cox