

Wednesday, July 8, 1942

Wife of Albert Nussbaum Dies at Home Tuesday
Funeral Friday for 37-Year-Old Mother of Four Children

Mrs. Grace Marie Nussbaum, 37, wife of Albert Nussbaum of Monroe Township, and the mother of four children, died at her home five miles northwest of Berne at 1:20 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Nussbaum family lives on the old Mathias Liechty farm, on the Monroe-French Township line. Death came after an illness of eight years. She suffered from a kidney ailment and complications.

Mrs. Nussbaum had been bedfast for eight weeks. She was taken to Adams County Hospital on June 24 and returned to her home last Saturday, July 4. She suffered much at times. She had been in serious condition several years ago, and then improved somewhat until the last few months when her condition again became worse.

Mrs. Nussbaum was born in Adams County on October 31, 1904, a daughter of Adolph and Lydia Meyer Reinhard. She was married to Albert Nussbaum January 27, 1924, the wedding taking place in Berne. They lived in Berne after their marriage until 11 years ago when they moved to the farm where death occurred.

Surviving are the husband, two sons and two daughters. They are Betty Jane Nussbaum, who graduated from Monroe High School this spring, Robert Lewis, Pauline Lucile and David Herman, all at home. The father, Adolph Reinhard and the step-mother survive. They live in Washington Township. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Arnold Reinhard, Fort Wayne; Harry, who is in military service and stationed at Pine Camp, New York; Carl, Chicago; Howard, French Township; Mrs. Harry (Esther) Lehman, Monroe Township; Miss Ruth Reinhard, of Berne, the office nurse and secretary to Dr. M. L. Habegger; Mary, Muncie, and Alice at Chicago. A brother, Herman, died here three years ago and the mother preceded sixteen years ago.

Mrs. Nussbaum was a member of the Mennonite Church. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the home and at 2:00 o'clock at the Mennonite Church. Rev. Alfred Clauser, local retired pastor and Rev. Russel Weller, pastor of the Pleasant Dale Church in Kirkland Township, will officiate. Burial will be in the MRE Cemetery.

Adams County Historical Museum

1942A Scrapbook, image 87

Transcribed by Jim Cox