

Wednesday, February 25, 1942

Baby Born on Wedding Anniversary of Parents, Grandparents

The birth of a baby girl named Waneta Elaine to Eldon and Ludella Stauffer Lehman last Sunday had enough coincidents to almost make it an item for Ripley's "Believe It or Not" column. The baby was born on the 40th wedding anniversary of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Stauffer, the bride's parents. The same day was the fourth wedding anniversary of the baby's parents. It is the third child in the Lehman family and each one was born in February.

*****

Saturday, July 11, 1942

ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Foreman of 711 Winchester Street are the parents of a baby boy born this morning at 10:15 o'clock at the Adams County Memorial Hospital. He weighed eight pounds and one ounce and has not been named.

Mr. and Mrs. Foreman moved here recently from Fort Wayne and are occupying the stucco cottage on the E. B. Macy property.

*****

Monday, March 2, 1942

Miss Florence Radway is Bride of Harold Strickler at Decatur

In a quiet ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Baptist Church at Decatur, Miss Florence Radway, formerly of Berne, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Gamseby of Calvin, North Dakota, became the bride of Harold Strickler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Strickler of Decatur. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Carey R. Moser.

Mrs. Jerome Yager who served as her only attendant and Mr. Thomas Haubold, friend of the groom, served as best man.

After the church service, the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home at Homestead 3, Decatur.

Guests at the wedding were close relatives of the groom which included his mother. His father was unable to attend due to sickness.

*****

No date (cut off)

Katherine Clauser is Bride of James Howard

Former Berne Woman is Bride of James Clyde Howard

The marriage of Katherine Schug Clauser of Fort Wayne, formerly of Berne and James Clyde Howard, of the 45th Air Base Squadron of the U.S. Air Corps at Baer Field, Fort Wayne, occurred Thursday evening February 19.

The vows were received at the Crescent Avenue Evangelical parsonage at Fort Wayne, the Rev. Leroy Geiger officiating.

The couple were attended by Miss Pennington and Ralph Dick.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. C. Schug of Berne and is employed in the offices of the Fort Wayne branch of the General Electric Company. Mr. Howard is a son of James William Howard of Evansville, Ind.

The couple is at home at 609 West Wayne Street, Fort Wayne.

Adams County Historical Museum

1942A Scrapbook, image 101-102

Transcribed by Jim Cox