Ruth E. Stuckey is Bride Saturday
Wed to Adolph Charles Ferber at Local Church

In a quiet ceremony, Miss Ruth Elizabeth Stuckey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stuckey and Adolph Charles Ferber, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ferber of Fort Wayne, were married on Saturday morning at the parsonage of the Cross Evangelical and Reformed Church. Rev. C. A. Schmid read the vows with a single ring service at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stuckey attended the couple.

For the rites, the bride chose a costume of beige sheer aplaca with accessories of Indiana clay. She wore a corsage of jonquils. Her sister-in-law was dressed in black and white crepe with accessories of white and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Ferber is a graduate of Berne High School and the Lutheran Hospital of Fort Wayne. She attended Indiana University Extension in Fort Wayne and was employed in Fort Wayne as a Public Health nurse by the Visiting Nurse League.

Mr. Ferber is a graduate of Central High School of Fort Wayne and is employed in the shipping department of Peter Eckrich and Sons at Fort Wayne.

The couple left on a short wedding trip to Chicago and will be home at 3020 S. Calhoun Street, Fort Wayne.
