

Monday, April 20, 1942

Miss Rachel Burkhalter is Bride Saturday
Well-Known Local Woman Becomes Wife of Dr. W. E. Regier

In a pretty parsonage ceremony performed at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, Miss Rachel Burkhalter became the bride of Dr. W. E. Regier.

Dr. C. H. Suckau, pastor of the First Mennonite Church performed the double ring service with the brothers and sisters of the bride in attendance. He gave a sermonette on Psalm 23 before pronouncing the vows.

Freeman Burkhalter and his sister Miss Frances Burkhalter, nephew and niece of the bride, attended the couple as bridesmaid and best man and also presented nuptial music.

Monday, April 6, 1942

Harvey Habegger Wed on Saturday
Marries Miss Marjadene Reed of Ft. Wayne in Home Ceremony

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Habegger north of Berne was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Marjadene Reed of Fort Wayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn G. Reed of Kendallville, became the bride of their son, Harvey C. Habegger, in a ceremony on Saturday afternoon.

Friday, February 13, 1942

Former Berne Man is Dead at Miami, Florida
L. Neuenschwander, Who Learned Watch Making Here, Dies

Albert L. Neuenschwander, 70, of Miami, Florida, formerly of Berne and a native of this community, died at his residence in Miami it has been learned here. He died after a lingering illness. The funeral was held at Miami and burial was made there.

Mr. Neuenschwander was known as Miami's pioneer optician. He retired one year ago after 27 years in business in various locations in Miami. He was born in this community, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Neuenschwander. His mother was an Ellenberger.

Surviving are the widow, M. Bertha Neuenschwander, seven sons, Karl, Lawrence, Clarence, Wilbur, Russell, Ralph (cut off).

Adams County Historical Museum
Feb-Nov 1942 Scrapbook, image 45
Transcribed by Jim Cox