To Mark Golden Wedding

One of the city's best known couples will mark 50 years of married life here next Monday when Mr. and Mrs. Jess H. Cole of North Fifth Street, celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary.

While their actual anniversary will fall on Tuesday - they were married in Dorr, Michigan on September 8, 1892 - the event will be commemorated on Monday, September 7 since it is a holiday and more members of the family will be able to participate. The event is to be held at the home of a son, Carrel H. Cole on Mercer Avenue.

Mrs. Cole was formerly Lula E. Carrel. Mr. Cole was born at Pittsford, Michigan and Mrs. Cole at Grand Rapids, Michigan. They moved to this city in 1903 when Mr. Cole was named station agent of the Erie Railroad in this city.

He retired about four years ago after more than 40 years' service with the railroad. Both are in apparent good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole are the parents of six children: Jesse L. Cole, of Michigan City; C. Warren Cole of Santa Monica, California; Mrs. Paul Sauer, Gerald O. Cole, Carrel H. Cole and Robert D. Cole, all of Decatur. There are eight grandchildren.

All of the children and grandchildren, except the son in California are expected to attend the celebration which will be in the form of a family dinner Monday evening. A brother of Mrs. Cole, Leon S. Carrel, will also be present.
