Clyde Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wolfe, was born October 25, 1881 and departed this life May 28, 1942, at the age of 60 years and 7 months. On February 6, 1904, he was united in marriage to Ida Durbin. To this union were born five children, one son having preceded him in death. He had lived near Monroe for the last twenty-five years. He was converted early and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

He is survived by the wife, three daughters, Mrs. Garold Fry of Pennville, Indiana, Mrs. Howard Presdorf of Craigville, Mrs. Norman Noack of Fort Wayne, one son, Grover Wolfe of Decatur, an aged father, five grandchildren, four sisters and one brother, besides a host of relatives and friends.

Through much pain at times he'd smile - a smile of heavenly birth. And when the angels carried him (cut off)
