Miss Mildred Eileen Voght, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Voght, 3234 South Hanna Street, was a bride of Saturday evening, her marriage to Roger Paul Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Ryan, 3011 Smith Street, taking place in Wayne Gospel Temple. The Rev. Clifford Hollifield officiated and preceding the reading of vows, a musicale was given by Bert Willhoyt, organist and Mrs. John Will and Charles Will, violinists.

Mr. Voght gave his daughter in marriage and her two sisters, Dorothy, as maid of honor and Juanita, as bridesmaid, with Miss Crystal Valentine. Cletus C. Evans served as best man and Donald Armstrong and William Kaufman were ushers. Arrangements of Picardy gladioli and palms, with many white candles, provided a setting for the wedding party.

The bride's gown was youthfully fashioned of White taffeta, the bodice having a heart shaped neck and short full sleeves, and a heavy cording giving the skirt a bouffant effect. Clusters of orange blossoms caught her long veil at the top of the head. Her only jewelry was the bridegroom's gift, a single strand of pearls, and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses and swansonia.

Her three attendants wore bouffant gowns of pastel blue, pink and yellow respectfully and they wore matching shoulder veils and carried armfuls of Talisman roses. Both Mrs. Voght and Mrs. Ryan, Sr., wore corsages of pink carnations with their dark ensembles.

The Misses Lois and Helen Voght, Mildred Johnson, Evelyn Forbes, Josephine Peters and Mrs. Harold Voght assisted at the reception which followed the ceremony at the Voght residence. The newlyweds now are at home in the Windsor Apartments.
