LT. ERNA LANKENAU WEDS CAPT. BEMONT

Fifty guests attended the wedding of Lt. Erna Clara Lankenau of the army nurses' corps and Capt. Richard Leonard Bemont of the corps of military police, which was solemnized at eight o'clock Tuesday night in the Zion Lutheran church.

The double ring vows were received by Rev. Paul W. Schultz, pastor of the church, and organ music was played by Mrs. Schultz. Attending the couple were the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hancher.

Capt. and Lt. Bemont wore full military dress, the latter carrying white gardenias arranged on her prayer book. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 922 West Monroe street.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lankenau and the past summer enlisted in the army nurses' corps. Capt. Bemont, who is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foley, is a captain in the corps of military police. Both are stationed at Fort Custer, Michigan.

After a wedding trip to Hartford, Conn., and Providence, R. I., they will be at home at 41 Horton street, Battle Creek, Mich.
