

Mr. & Mrs. Jimmy Van Laws

Happiness and joy were shared at the Williamsport Christian Church on Sept. 11, 1993 at the wedding ceremony of Amy Lynn Briles and Jimmy Van Laws. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Don Williams.

Parents of the couple are Glen Jr. and Marilyn Briles of Williamsport and Martha Jo Laws of Newtown and the late Jim Laws.

Honor attendants were Amy Martin of Lafayette and Chris Taylor of Newtown.

Other members of the wedding party were Jamie Briles of Winamac, Trena Briles of Otterbein, Jami Waters of Attica, David Scott of Hillsboro, Ricky Laws of Newtown, Todd Briles of Williamsport and Greg Briles of Winamac. Flowergirl was Bobbi Jo Larson of Williamsport and ringbearer was Jesse Scott of Hillsboro.

The bride graduated from Seeger Memorial High School and is employed at Lafayette Venetian Blind. The groom graduated from Fountain Central High school and is employed at Wabash National, Lafayette.

After a reception in The Beef House, the couple left for Gatlinburg, Tenn. They will be living in rural Warren County.