Myers celebrate 50th anniversary

ATTICA — Warren and Viola Cook (Cookie) Myers will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 18. They were married in Texarkana, where they met during World War II.

After the war, they lived in Chicago before going into the restaurant business in Rockville (The Beechwood Inn). From there they owned a restaurant in Lafayette called Smitty's at junction 231 and 28, (now called Southland).

Their next move was to Attica, where they bought a home at 412 East Pike St. It was here that they raised five sons: Bill, Houston, Texas; John, Indianapolis; Larry, Clearwater, Fla.; Frank, Indianapolis; and Steve, Warner Robbins, Ga. They have 11 grandchildren.

Businesses in Attica they owned were: The Hoosier Restaurant, eight years; the DogNSuds, which they built and ran for 20 years; the Hob Nob Restaurant in the shopping center; the Stage One Night Club and the Big Daddy Drive-In, which they managed with son Larry.

After 35 years at 412 E. Pike St., the Myers moved into a smaller home at 512 E. Pike where they now live.
