

50th anniversary

Janeway

1996

HILLSBORO — Mr. and Mrs. Sam Janeway, 3332 E 40 S, Hillsboro, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house reception from 2-5 p.m. Oct. 27, 1996 at their home. The event is being hosted by their children. Gifts are to be omitted, but cards and your presence will be welcome.

Sam and June Wellhauck Janeway were married Oct. 27, 1946 in Union City, Tenn. with the Rev. James Woodward of the First Methodist Church, Union City, officiating.

They are the parents of two children, Nancy (Ed) Beasley, Veedersburg, and Mary (Ted) Harris, Crawfordsville. They also have three grandchildren.

June is a homemaker and Sam has served 25 years on the Production Credit Union Board in Greencastle. He is a retired farmer. They are both members of the Hillsboro Christian Church.
