Personett is Sherriff of Franklin Co. He first served in that office by appointment, and his qualifications won the approval of the people when he was elected to that office in 1928 and again in 1930. Mr. Personett was born at Irvington, Marion County, Indiana, December 30, 1870, son of Charles and Elizabeth (Osborn) Personett. His father was born at Centerville, Wayne County, and his mother in Franklin County, where her father, Aaron Osborn, was a pioneer. Charles Personett learned the trade of carpenter and later for many years carried on a lumber business in Franklin County. He died in August, 1930, in his ninety-first year. Elmer E. Personett was a small child when his mother died. He was educated in the district schools in Franklin County and lived with his father until his marriage. Mr. Personett practically grew up in the lumber business and that was his principal line of work. He had the distinction of serving as the first janitor of the new courthouse of Brookville. He was in that position two years. He also worked in a paper mill until he was appointed sheriff to fill the unexpired term in May, 1927, the result of the death of the former sheriff. In November, 1928, he was elected by popular vote to that office. Mr. Personett is a Democrat in politics. He is a member of the Improved Order of Red Men and Daughters of Pocahontas and belongs to the Haymakers and other organizations. He married, May 4, 1894, Miss Effie Morgan, a native of Decatur County, Indiana. She died December 7, 1897, leaving one daughter Blanch, now Mrs. Burton L. McFall, of Connersville. Sheriff Personett on June 8, 1900, married Miss Effie Berg, a native of Franklin County, daughter of William T. and Nancy J. (Sherwood) Berg.
