A Homicide. James F. Brown shot and killed by H.M. Cornell.

James F. Brown was shot and killed by H.M. Cornell, at Mr. Cornell's residence in Burris Fork township, in this county, Friday last. Brown, who resides at Lohman's Station on the branch road, married a step-daughter of Mr. Cornell's - they had trouble, and the daughter returned to her father's house Friday, with her two children. Later in the day Brown made his appearance and demanded his children - they were refused and the door closed on him - he broke into the house, seized one of the children, was scuffling with his wife and Mrs. Cornell, when Mr. Cornell shot him in the arm near the shoulder, with a shot gun loaded with shot, from the effects of which Brown died Sunday - Cornell warned him not to enter the house.

We learn the cause of separation was jealousy on the part of Brown. He ran a saloon at Lohman's Station, was 31 years of age - they had two children.

The corners jury rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Dr. John P. Burke, County Coroner, accompanied by Jas. E. Bazell, Prosecuting Attorney, went out Sunday. The corner summoned a jury, comprising of H.C. Hickcox, John A. Milburn, Ferdinand Holterman, F.M. Groom, Sterling Stephens and A.N. Hunter - several witnesses were examined when the jury returned the following <unreadable copy>

"Jas. F. Brown  found at the residence  in Burris Fork  County, MO, on the  1885, came to his death by reason of a gun shot wound in the upper third of the humerus of the left arm, which passed into the muscles of the left breast and side, that H.M. Cornell fired the gun, and we believe from the evidence that he did it in defence [sic] of his home, his wife and step-daughter and her children, and that he fired the gun and inflicted the wound of which the said James F. Brown died after the said Brown had been repeatedly warned not to enter his door, or his house - that Juda T. Cornell, his wife, was present, and that Zeluma Brown, his step-daughter, was present, and that Wm. E. Williams was within a short distance at the time of the shooting, and had come with the said Jas. F. Brown, the said Jas. F. Brown having married the said Zeluma Brown his sister - that the said Jas. F. Brown had said to Williams that he would kill any man who stood between him and his children, that said Jas. F. Brown rapidly approached the house of the said H.M. Cornell, and after warning bursted open a door in said house which had been shut and bolted to prevent his entry, and grabbed Harry Brown, a small child and tried to take him away by force, and whilst in a struggle with his wife, Zeluma, and Juda F [error, should be T.] Cornell over said child, the said Cornell fired the fatal shot - that said Brown had told his wife on said day to leave him, and that she came to the said Cornell's about 3 o'clock, on the afternoon of the day of the shooting, and that the said Jas. THE SON IS INNOCENT

Suicide

Mr. George Key, a prominent citizen of west Grant, living a few miles west of Patch Grove took his own life by cutting his throat last week.

The injuries were inflicted Wednesday forenoon and death resulted Friday at 4 p.m. family trouble is assigned as the cause of the unnatural deed.

The circumstances are as follows: Mr. Key's son Scott was working for a neighbor; Mrs. O'Neil-and developed symptoms of violent insanity. He pounded Mrs. O'Neil quite badly and threatened her son. He went home and made such a disturbance in his father's house that they became frightened and ran to the neighbors for assistance, leaving the father and son together.

When the neighbors returned to the house they found George Key unconscious with several deep cuts in his throat, and the windpipe cut entirely off. It was thought at first that possibly the son had done the deed, but the father revived-and stated that he himself had done the cutting because he did not want to live longer and that Scott had had no part in it. The funeral services were held Saturday and the body buried in Nagel Cemetary. Scott Key was taken to the Mendota Hospital for the Insane by Sheriff Dyer on Thursday.

George Washington KEY and Rebecca R BARNETT were married on 7 Jun 1858 in Patch Grove Twp., Grant Co., WI. Rebecca R BARNETT was born on 20 Sep 1838 in PA. She died on 1 Apr 1882 at the age of 43 in Patch Grove, Grant Co., WI.

SUICIDE AT PATCH GROVE

Miss Alice Key Hangs Herself in Her Own Home

The people of Patch Grove were shocked last Saturday morning at the news of another tragic suicide. The body of Miss Alice Key was found in her own home hanging by the neck. Life has been extinct for several hours and the awful deed was plainly one of self-destruction. Miss Key was a woman of about 33 yours of age and lived alone in the village of Patch Grove. Her brother, Scott Key, made his home with her when in Patch Grove, but was away much of the time. She earned her living sewing, paper hanging and by other forms of labor among her neighbors.

She was of a very nervous, high-strung dispostion and had at times been thought to be slightly insane. Her brother Scott a year ago last June was sent to the Mendota Asylum for a short time and her father, George Key, in a fit of temporary insanity killed himself by cutting his throat at the same time. This girl Alice found her father's body and was greatly affected by it.

Last Friday she was greatly excited and in a highly nervous condition. She told W.E. Lewis and others that her brother Scott was crazy again, that she was afraid of him and that he had 2 razors secreted to kill her with.

The neighbors advised her not to stay alone but to remain that night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, which she agreed to do. She got restless during the evening and insisted on going home to lock up. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson followed her some time later, but finding the house quiet and dark, concluded she had retired and returned home. In the morning, they returned accompanied by Mr. Jones and finding the door still locked, broke into the house. Her lifeless form was hanging; in the stairway, her feet resting; on the stairs. The rope around nor neck was fastened to a board, which lay across the stairs. She had evidently died of strangulation as the rope was long enough to permit her feet to rest on the stairs. A razor lay on the stairs in front of her.

The body was at once taken in charge by the authrorities and a coroner's inquest held. The jurors were:

The inquest was conducted by J.A. Davis, Justice of the Peace. The verdict war that "Alice Key came to her death by hanging by a rope and that the act was committed by herself being temporarily insane". The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2. Two letters were found, one probably written Friday evening, the other some weeks previous. Neither seemed to throw much light on the cause of the suicide, dealing mainly with trifling business matters but disconnected and almost unintelligible.

ABRAHAM KEY, one of the defenders of the union during the Rebellion, and a representative citizen of Patch Grove township, belongs to one of the pioneer families of Grant county, and for many years was a resident of Wyalusing township. He was born in Pike county, Ill., in 1835, his parents being Marshall and Sarah (SCHALL) KEY. The name KEY is a historic one, and some of the representatives of this family have attained to national fame. The branch of the family to which Abraham KEY belongs is along the same line of descent, though a little remote, as was Francis Scott KEY, the famous author of the "Star Spangled Banner." Philip Barton KEY, who was slain in Washington many years ago by Gen. Sickles, was descended from the same ancestry. The parents of Abraham KEY were married in Kentucky, and from that State moved to Illinois, coming to the territory of Wisconsin in 1841, and locating near Montfort, Grant county. Subsequently they removed to Lancaster, and still later to Beetown. The father was engaged in lead mining for many years, and in those early days the places above mentioned produced large quantities of lead ore. Later the family took up their residence in Wyalusing township, where the father died in 1879, and the mother passed away some years later. In their family were eight children, three sons and five daughters, all of whom are living at the present writing, in 1900, with the exception of George. The others are Eliza, Amanda, Abraham, Surilda, Nancy, Mary Ann and Benton. The eldest daughter, Eliza, is now a resident of Minnesota.

Abraham KEY remained under the parental roof until he entered the service of his country during her hour of peril. He enlisted Sept. 3, 1864, in the 1st Wis. Heavy Artillery, and was in active service until the close of the war. The command nominally belonged to the Army of the Potomac, and a large part of its service was in defense of the national capital, being assigned to the fortifications around the city of Washington. Its duties were arduous, and often called for the exercise of as much skill and bravery as did the more active service at the front. After the war Mr. KEY returned to the old homestead in Wyalusing township.

In 1871 Mr. KEY was married to Miss Laura HERRING, also a native of Illinois, and they have become the parents of eight children, three sons and five daughters, namely: Abraham, Jesse, Lloyd Fitch, Mary, Nellie, Jennie, Wisconsin Belle and Millie. Mr. KEY was a faithful soldier in the war for the Union, and as a citizen is highly respected by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. For more than a quarter of a century he made his home in Wyalusing township, but is now an honored resident of Patch Grove. Fraternally he is a worthy member of the G.A.R. Post of Bloomington.

The following was copied from an obituary that Wessie Anderson's granddaughter had.

DEATH OF ABRAHAM KEY SR

Prominent Patch Grove Citizen and Grant County Pioneer Died Last Saturday

"Abe" Key of Patch Grove, one of Grant County's oldest pioneers, died very suddenly last Saturday evening after an illness lasting but a few hours. The funeral services were held at the Patch Grove M E CHURCH Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Waste officiating. The following obituary by M. F. Woodhouse is a fitting tribute to one of West Grant's best known citizens.

Abraham Key was born in Pike county, Illinois, December 28th, 1835, his parents being Marshall and Sarah (Scott) Key. The name Key is an historic one and some of the representatives of this family have attained national fame. The branch of the family to which Abraham Key belonged is along the same line of descent, though a little remote, as was Francis Scott Key, the author of ""The Star Spangled Banner". Philip Barton Key, who was slain in Washington many years ago by General Sickles, was descended from the same family. The parents of Abraham Key were married in Kentucky and from that state moved to Illinois, coming to the territory of Wisconsin in 1841, locating near Montfort, Grant county. Subsequently, they moved to Lancaster and still later to Beetown. The father was engaged in lead mining, and Beetown at that time was the Golconda which attracted hundreds of the hardy pioneers and soldiers of fortune such as the Keys, Edwardses, Garners and Woodhouses. They were a rough and ready lot, who worked hard when they worked and played just as hard when they played. The men brought up in that school were taught to rely upon their own ability and soon learned that a clear head and a quick arm were conditions precedent to success and that the respect accorded one by his fellows depended upon his own ability to enforce it.

Abe fitted into the life and was naturally peace loving, with a genial social disposition, but if any man attempted to impose upon him, soon found that he had "A foeman worthy of his steel", one absolutely without fear.

One instance showing his courage may be cited. Many years ago, while he was constable at Cassville, the crew of a Mississippi river steamer mutinied, over powered the officers and took possession of the boat. The owners of the boat endeavored to induce the authorities at several places to board the steamer and arrest the mutineers, but could find no man or set of men who dared to undertake the task. When they got to Cassville Abe Key induced one man to go on the boat with him, but single handed, walked up to the ring leader of the conspirators, overpowered him, and so intimidated the others that they surrendered, and the mutiny was ended.

Mr. Key served in the Civil War, was enlisted in the 1st Wisconsin Heavy Artillery September 3rd, 1864, and served until the war ended. He was in the area of the Potomac and was engaged in the defense of the National Capital, being assigned to the fortifications around Washington. His duties were arduous and often called for the exercise on as much skill and bravery as did the more active service at the front. We today, who are enjoying the blessings of freedom in a great and united country, should remember that we owe them to men like Abe Key, who left home and fireside and offered their lives on bloody battlefields that our nation might endure. Greater love hath no man than this.

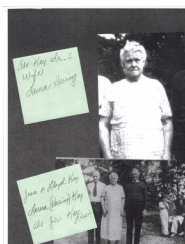

Mr. Key was married in 1871 to Miss Laura Herring, also a native of Illinois. He became a farmer and followed his chosen calling for many years. "Oft did the harvest to sickle yield" until he felt that he and his good wife should rest from the labors and enjoy the fruits of life of honest toil. So he sold his farm and settled down among his old friends and neighbors at Patch Grove, where he has resided practically ever since. In Mr. Key's father's family were 8 children and there were also 8 children in his family. He was passionately fond of them and his pride in them was always apparent and was a touching and beautiful thing to witness.

Mr. Key believed in the principles of Democracy. He was loyal to his party as he was to his country, and while he never sought political honors, yet his name was often spoken of in connection with those offices which required personal courage of a high order, but he preferred the quiet of his farm to the strife of politics and would never enter the contests which seem to be necessary, under our system of government in order to obtain office.

He passed out of this life on September 2nd, 1916. He is survived by one sister, Nancy Patch, his widow Laura Key, and eight children, namely Mary Glass of Bagley, Wi.; Nellie Parsons of Dodgeville, Wi.; Jennie Booth of Patch Grove; Abraham Key of Wyalusing; Wessie Anderson of Patch Grove; Jesse Key of Potosi; Mildred Jane Key of Rockford, Ill; Lloyd Key of Wyalusing.

The tall erect form of Abe Key will be seen no more. The bright eye, which was wont to look so pleasantly upon familiar faces and acquaintances of his old home is now curtained by death. The cordial hand clasp, with which he greeted so many of us, in only a memory, but while we bow to the inexorable decree of nature, we may yet indulge the fond hope that when "sunset and evening star and one clear call" have come for us, we may in some happier sphere where partings and tears are never known, be reunited with this love of husband, father, and friend.

The paragraph containing the family's expressions of "thanks" was not legible so was unable to print.

Abraham KEY and Laura Alice HERRING were married on 1 Jan 1871 in Cassville, Grant Co., WI. Laura Alice HERRING, daughter of John HERRING and Margaret MCKAY, was born on 16 Sep 1851 in IL. She died on 10 Feb 1939 at the age of 87 in Patch Grove, Grant Co., WI.

OBITUARY LAURA HERRING KEY

Laura Herring Key, daughter of John Herring and Margaret McKay, was born Sept. 16, 1851, in the state of Illinois. When she was about three years old, he family, consisting of the parents, two sons and two daughters, moved to Grant County, Wisconsin. The major portion of Laura's busy and happy girlhood as spent in Cassville. She was personally acquainted with the family of the first governor of Wisconsin, Nelson Dewey, and spent many days in the historic mansion which was their home.

She was fond of telling her grandchildren of how, when she was only 13 years old, the Governor and his wife came to the Herring home, and in the absence of her mother, Laura prepared and served the Governor's favorite meal of fried chicken and hot gingerbread.

It was in Cassville that she met her first and only lover, Abraham Key. They were married Jan. 1, 1871, and to this union were born five daughters and three sons, all of whom survive her and all were able to be in loving attendance during her last illness. It is indeed her rare privelege to be granted such a long life and to be comforted by all of her children during her declining years. Those surviving are Mrs. P. W. Glass, Bagley; Mrs. J. J. Persons-and Mrs. Mildred Miller, Madison; Mrs. F. H. Booth and Mrs. Geo Anderson, Patch Grove; J. B. Key, Dubuque, Ia.; Lloyd Key, Ada, Minn.; 17 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren.

Early in her married life the family moved to the farm on Old Sandy, here her sons and daughters enjoyed a happy, carefree childhood surrounded by those plain but lovely comforts which make a childhood sweet. For---

"This place was home

And here were hearts made glad with simple things,

Wind, laughter, rain and sun,
great dawn, red dusk

And rest when the work was done."

This dear mother possessed that rare and wonderful ability to create from the simplest things, an atmosphere of brightness, peace and order. Her loving, clever hands were busy from early morning till late at night with the manifold tasks which confronted the housewife in those early days. Countless stitches in tiny garments, countless loaves of bread and countless hours of watching at bedsides; far from doctors or the comforts we all enjoy now without making thought of those pioneer mothers, of brave and indomitable spirit who reared their families with the labor of their hands.

In 1900 the family moved to Patch Grove, where Mrs. Key has resided ever since. In 1916, her husband preceded her in death, but she kept her home here and for many years was active in lodge and church work. Though in late years he was confined to her home a great deal, she was a familiar and well-loved figure in Patch Grove. Everyone passing her house looked for the cheery smile and the wave of her hand with which she always greeted the passerby.

There her sons and daughters gathered to renew family ties and enjoy the companionship of the dear mother who always had for them a glad and loving welcome.

"She always leaned to watch for us

Anxious if we were late

In winter by the window

In summer by the gate.

Her thoughts were all so full of us

She never could forget

And so I think that where she is

She must be watching yet.

Waiting till we come home to her

Anxious if we are late

Watching from Heaven's window

Leaning from Heaven's gate."

On Jan. 10 of this year, as she was going about her usual duties while her great-grandchild was out on an errand, she fell and fractured her hip. She was taken to the Prairie du Chien Sanatorium where everything loving hands and anxious minds could devise was done for her, but to no avail. Though she seemed to rally for awhile, her advanced years took their toll on her strength and endurance. Finally the brave spirit weakened and on Feb. 14, at noon, her Master bade the laboring heart to rest and from the pain-wracked body, the brave and trusting soul went forth to meet its God.

"Dear Mother, we could not find the strength to say good-bye

If we did not know the soul which loved us did not die.

In that far land to which your spirit winged its flight

You'll still have care of us, your dear ones, day and night.

So we will live faithfully as you would have us do.

We'll set our faltering feet in that straight path you trod

And when our day is done, and we are called, we too

May find an everlasting home with you and God.

The funeral services were held from the house to the M. E. Church in Patch Grove. In spite of the inclement weather there was a very large attendance. Rev. W. K. Bodamer of Prairie du Chien preached the funeral sermon, using as his text, "Life Everlasting".

Mark and Ralph Hoskins sang two favorite hymns of the deceased.

She was buried beside her husband in the Patch Grove cemetery. Six grandsons acted as pallbearers: Virgil, Kenneth, Keith, George, and Harley Key and Leland Anderson.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deep appreciation and gratitude to all of those who by their acts of kindness helped us during the illness, death and burial of our beloved mother.

Miss Lockett Smith,
Frankfort, Ky.,

Dear Miss Smith:

A genealogical friend just sent me a report from the July 1945 "Register of the Kentucky Historical Society" of Frankfort. Vol. 43 # 144

On page 219, Key, Sally, Widow; Aged 75; Birthplace Va.

The above is my, great, great grandmother, wife of Price Key, Revolutionary War Soldier. Her maiden name was Sally McQueen. I have certified copy of their marriage, March 26, 1787, Fauquier County, Va., with Charles McQueen giving his consent for marriage.

They moved from said county to Clark Co., Ky., about 1792 and lived there until after October 20, 1820, when they removed to Barren county, where he died July 14, 1829. She remained at the home of her daughter, Judith (Mrs. James) Bennett, until after her death c1845-after the death of her dau, she removed to another dau's home, Mrs. Anderson Johns, Montgomery Co., Ky., where her pension papers say she died September 7, 1855. As per affidavits made by her son-in-law, said Anderson Johns, and his dau. Sally Pettit. It is of great interest that you found: this record of her death and birthplace.

From her affidavits form her pension claim she was 78 years old in 1839- and several times after, she made-affidavits at various ages, at 80- 85 88 etc, she made claim for gov land; and this was awarded her, after her death, which was duly sold by her Admr, in 1858; this was Joseph H. Johns son of said Anderson Johns, of Montgomery Co., we have searched the Mtgy., Co., records with a fine tooth comb and have not been able to find a mention of her estate or a final settlement there of-no mention of her heirs and we know she had several living children and many grandchildren.

You gave her age as 75; Could it be possible that you found another Sally Key, and not the above? For my Sally Key would be near 95- You see she was married in 1787-; died in 1856 (your figures) then she would have been only six years old at time of marriage-. Please do not be offended, by my figuring, you have no idea how glad I was to find that she was of record in Barren Co., and I hope that you found some Bible-records of the family or an Obituary in a local paper, this is of much interest to me, more than you could ever imagine; would you be so kind as to inform me where you found this data, that I might try further to see what we can find about the family. I have written my cousin, Sylvia Pettit (Mrs. William H) Welch, East Lansing, Mich., about the above data and she expects to be in Ky. in the next few days and she may look you up, if my letter manages to catch up with her while she is there.

From about 1790 to 1880 all my ancestors lived in Ky., Barren, Adair, Matcalfe, Green Counties were their homes and very little data has been found about them, most of the older ones died before 1852. I have tried and tried again, and again to trace my different lines but very little found in printed documents. If you can give me the least bit of help, it will be greatly appreciated, and if any thing further you would like to know I will gladly help all I can. Thank you for an early reply, I am Very truly yours,

My dear Miss Smith:

Descendants of Price Key

12 March 2011

Thank you for your letter of the 8th offering to keep my letter on file and as I had written so briefly on the subject of Sarah (Sally) McQueen Key, I decided to give you the documental facts that I have about her dying in Montgomery County, Ky., yet there seems to be no data of record in Montgomery County about her estate and it was with renewed hope that I read that she had passed away in Barren county, Ky., and not Montgomery.

I am sure that you understand when I ask that you please tell me how it was that the County Clerk of Barren Co., 1852-to 1862 keep record of deaths, was it a record of people who paid taxes or of estates settled, in said county- or was it just a record of the residents, of said county, deaths- my opinion would be that they had an estate of some kind and their death was brought to the attention of the Clerk of Court- it could be that she died as per Governmental statement September 7, 1855, and the news of her death did not reach Barren Co., Clerk until June, 1856- and so he recorded the date as June, 1856, if my reasoning should be correct, then we might find the settlement of her estate in Barren County, and after all these years of research, learn the names of her children- in her pension paper she complains that her husband died and did not leave her any record of her marriage or birth of children.

How I wish it were possible for me to come to your Library and follow up any leads that I have these references in themselves, do not mean a thing, yet by following them out it might bring much information- you see we have not been able to find the parentage of my Price Key- and we had a Mrs. Baach Lexington search the old Kentucky Gazette Obituaries for data, she found nothing. I will give you a reference that in it's self means nothing- yet if I could follow it out- I might find some help-;

Ibid. 11CC160-161- Shane's interview 1849, with William Leavy, "near Lexington, Ky.- "Mr. Key, brother-in-law of Mrs. Leavy's grandfather". No further information given, yet Mrs. Leavy's grandfather would be of the same period as my Price Key, that is not much to go on, I admit.

One thing that has been strange to me- James Key, Sr., brother of my Price, married Judith Keith, a sister of Mary Randolph Keith Marshall, wife of Thomas Marshall, and was associated with Thos. Marshall in many ways, the names of their children the same in both families etc. The Marshall left many records, and were people of note, and yet the records seem blank about the Key families, Thos. Marshall's name in 1790 census, Mason Co., but Jas. Key's name is not of record in census yet he was there; Draper MSS.11CC79-" James Keys, lived about a mile from Abbot's Mill, came to Kentucky, 1789; settled at Boonesborough. He, George Eads, and five others went hunting up the Kentucky in the fall of 1790 and discovered a coal mine". end of quote. About 1792 he removed to Mason Co., KY. where he died Sept. 1817-some of his descendants still live there but they are not interested in genealogy, nor was their parents-Any thing that you do to help me will be greatly appreciated, I can assure you.

Sincerely yours,

// Kathryn DeMombreum Whitefort

He married Sarah McQueen on March 17, 1786 in Fauquier County Va. (I have certified copy of their marriage from County Clerk, said county, they were married March 26, 1787, the above must be wrong date) KDW

The date of Sarah's birth and the name of her parents are not stated. Her age is shown in November 1839 as 78 years, in April 1843 as 80 years, in September 1848 as 86 years and in July 1855 as about 88 years. She died September 7, 1855. In 1820 a son about, 16 or 17 was the only child who lived at home with his parents his name was not mentioned.

Sarah Key mentioned their children but did not mention any of their names. In 1855 Anderson Johns was with the veteran's widow, Sarah Key, in Montgomery County, at Mount Sterling, Kentucky. He stated then that he married Sarah's daughter" more than 40 years ago" but did not mention her name, (Nancy Key). His daughter Sarah Ann Pettit (Sarah's granddaughter) was with him in 1855.

Alexander Key (son of James and Judith Keith Key), age 66 in 1839, made affidavit in Mason Co. Ky., states that he recalls, when Price Key, his uncle was married to Sarah McQueen, the marriage took place either in 1786 or 1787 cannot state positive which year. That he understands his uncle is dead and his aunt now resided in the Southern part of Ky. Then follows affidavit of his brother Peyton R. Key, Mason Co., Ky., which contains about the same data- In 1840, Sarah Key, Barren County Ky., states that she has no record of proof of her marriage, and the only evidence she can produce is affidavits James Key, (Jr.) (bro. of Alex. and Peyton above) of Mason Co., Ky., that her husband died and left no family record of her marriage or the birth of her children----- Sarah Key was a resident of Montgomery Co., K., 1848, age 86.

In 1855 in Montgomery Co. Ky. July 3rd, Anderson Johns (her son-in-law*) and Sally Ann Pettit, residents of said county, states that Sarah Key is the identical person who received pension under act of 2-2-1848, and that she still remains widow of Price Key, that they have known her well for the last 40 years etc.

From General Accounting Office, Washington, 25.D.C.

On July 21, 1857, the Clerk of the Court, Montgomery Co., Ky., certified that satisfactory proof had been made to said Court that Sarah Key died in Montgomery Co., Ky., on Sept. 7, 1855. The arrears of pension due the deceased, covering the period from Mach 4, 1855 to Sept 7, 1855, were allowed in favor of Joseph H. Johns, Administrator of the estate of Sarah Key, Third Auditor's Office on August 12, 1857. signed, JP, D. Fallon

Records extracted by Shary Bullock May 2001,

This tiny cemetery containing only a few graves sits stolidly and lonely on a small hill a mile south of Artesia, NM, and 1/4 mile east on Castleberry Road. It still resists the encroachments of progress as it has for nearly a century. In spite of the unique metal fence around the weed-grown tract, vandals have found it a likely target and several times have left their damaging marks. All but one identifying headstone has been stolen or vandalized. Because it is land-locked on private land, access to this cemetery is denied. The GPS is: 32 degrees 49 minutes 02 seconds North, 104 degrees 23 minutes 34 seconds west, at about 3385 feet above seal level. The margin of error at the time of reading was only 3 feet. Adjustments were made to compensate for the fact that reading had to be taken from Castleberry Road.

In a June 14, 1964 interview with the Artesia Daily Press, Mrs. W.T "Ruby" AMSTUTZ, daughter of J.W. TURKNETT, related the following story: James William "Uncle Dick" TURKNETT established the plot as a family cemetery in 1905 or 1906. The history of the Turknett family is a full one and closely linked to the development of this area of the Pecos Valley, beginning before the turn of the 20th century.

J.W. TURKNETT was an ex-Texas Ranger and Indian fighter. In the autumn of 1880, he and Edward PERIL, George LARIMORE, J.T. FANNING and Marion BULESON (sic), all drove their herds of cattle (about 1,800 head) from Kerr County, Texas to the Pecos Valley. The following spring all of the cattle were sold to Arthur EDDY, brother of C.B. EDDY, in whose honor Eddy County was named. After this sale Mr. TURKNETT and his companions returned to Texas. All of these men made eventual settlement in the Pecos Valley.

In May of 1882, J.W. TURKNETT returned to New Mexico accompanied by his wife, their two children and two teams of horses. He eventually acquired some 500 acres of land southeast of where Artesia now lies. The family's first home was near Lakewood but they later build a home not far from where the cemetery is situated.

Mrs. AMSTUTZ was born in the home about one and one-half miles southeast of the cemetery plot. Mrs. AMSTUTZ remembers hearing her mother tell about GERONIMO coming to their ranch, and being fed. She also recalls that her father went for supplies, not more than twice a year, to Pecos, TX or to Las Vegas, NM. It was also the time he took the wool or young calves to market. Mr. & Mrs. J.W. TURKNETT were buried in Woodbine Cemetery in Artesia.

Several of the graves in the TURKNETT CEMETERY were originally placed a few hundred yards east of the present cemetery but the ground was low and damp and so Mr. TURKNETT had them moved to the present location. The following names and comments were taken from the 1964 interview of Mrs. Ruby AMSTUTZ.

In May of 2001 there is only 1 marked grave, that being "Dick TURK, 1902".

-Peril, Mrs. Ed. Died of smallpox. She was the aunt of Mrs. Amstutz.

OBITUARY - RUSSEL KEY

"In that dread hour, when, standing at the brink
 Of a vast eternity, before I sink
 Into that last sleep, reach out thy hand,
 Dear God, to guide me to that promised land,
 Strengthen my soul, that, looking up, I see
 Not death, but life, and peace, and rest with Thee.

Russel Key was born November 8, 1905, at Glen Haven, Wisconsin. His family afterward moved to Wyalusing and in that picturesque village his happy, carefree boyhood days were spent.

When he was fourteen years of age he contracted the flu, which was of a particularly virulent form at that time. He never seemed to fully recover from this attack.

Not being physically strong, he developed a great aptitude for music. He could play almost any instrument I which came within his reach, and possessed a very beautiful tenor voice.

Of a quiet and retiring nature, he did not make acquaintances rapidly, but the friends he made, he kept until his death, and they sincerely mourn his passing from their midst.

September 24, 1924, he married Rose Hampton, and she, with five little sons, Loren, Nickie, Gerald, Bobbie and Jackie Lee, mourn the loss of a faithful husband and a loving father, whose great affection for his children was one of his most admirable characteristics. Throughout his long illness his young wife was his constant companion, and his patient and uncomplaining service won the admiration of all who knew her.

Russel made a very determined effort to regain his health, undergoing several major operations at St. Francis hospital at La Crosse, and one at the New sanatorium at Prairie du Chien, each time hoping that some permanent relief from his sufferings would be obtained. However, his condition gradually became so serious that his relatives and friends were forced to realize that his was a losing battle.

During the last weeks of his illness he was cared for by his brother Virgil and his sister Ivanelle, who is a graduate nurse. Everything that loving hearts could plan and willing hands could do, was done to alleviate his pain and make his last hours comfortable.

Several weeks prior to his death he expressed a desire to become a member of the Catholic church, so according to his wish he was baptized and received the sacraments of that faith.

Thursday evening, August 31, as the shades of evening fell, his day, too, was spent, and his soul passed on into the hands of its Creator.

Besides his wife and children he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Key; three brothers, Kenneth, Virgil and Keith; three sisters, Ivanelle, Mrs. Lucille Hatch and Phyllis, also his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Key. One sister, Laura Alice Key, preceded him in death some years ago.

The members of this family are unusually devoted to each other, so that; this break in the circle of loved ones is a sad blow to those who are left.

The funeral, one of the largest ever seen in that community, was held from the residence to St. John's church, where a requiem mass was read, and a beautiful and comforting sermon given by the pastor.

The pall bearers, chosen by the deceased from among his closest friends, were James O'Neil, Ralph Horsfall, Herman Adams, John Moore, Walter Bradley and George May. With saddened hearts they carried the casket to the beautiful little cemetery, where they laid the body of their comrade to rest amid a profusion of lovely flowers.

"He rests- life's fitful struggle o'er,
It's transient dream at end"

The relatives and friends who attended the funeral were from Madison, Prairie du Chien, Cassville, Glen Haven, Mt. Hope, Bagley and Bloomington, Wisconsin, also Dubuque, Ia.

Grieve not, as those who have no hope beyond this life;
Who lay their dead away, and see no meaning in this strife.
We know the soul still lives to a land more fair,
And it must be happy because God is there." S. T. K.

Magretha C. Zwack

Magretha C. Zwack, 94, recently of Luther Manor, formerly of 1744 N. Grandview Ave., Dubuque, died on Palm Sunday, April 5, 2009.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 8, at Nativity Catholic Church, where friends may call after 9 a.m.

Wednesday. The Egelhof, Siegert & Casper Westview Funeral Home, 2659 Kennedy Road, is in charge of arrangements.

She was born on Aug. 19, 1914, in Potosi, Wis., daughter of Jesse Benton Key and Syrena McLaughlin Key. She attended and graduated from schools in Dubuque.

She met and married Joseph A. Zwack in 1937. After Joseph died in 1953, at the age of 41, she worked in Dubuque doctors' offices for 20 years, devoting every other available moment to raising the four children born to her and Joseph.

Over the ensuing years, her life was her childrens and grandchildren, and their lives were hers. There was nothing she wouldn't do for a child, grandchild or great-grandchild. Family was all-important to her, and her hearty and infectious laugh will be remembered forever. When she got together with another good laughter, such as Phyllis Brookens or Betty Zwack, tears of joy were soon running down their cheeks, and everybody else in the room would be caught up in it.

Magretha was a strong, practical woman with a keen intellect who enjoyed traveling, loved her country and was very interested in politics. She was such a voracious reader, sometimes completing two books per day, that she had to place a small dot on a certain page of each book she read (don't tell the library) to prevent reading the same books again.

As a young person, she was involved in dancing, and she and her cousin performed in all the theaters in the broader tri-state area, with her cousin playing the piano and Magretha dancing. She was an excellent rifle shot. An accomplishment she sometimes joked about was the fact that one day she shot a better score than her husband, Joe, who was a member of the traveling Iowa National Guard Rifle Match Team.

Surviving are her son, Joseph (Paula) Zwack, of Dubuque; daughters Kathleen (Bert) Perron, of Dubuque, Margo (Tom) Kurtz, of Davenport, Iowa, and Ellen Zwack, of Dubuque; grandchildren, Laura (Curt) Coleman, Joey Zwack, Sharon (Kent) Coleman, Marelle Morgan, Michael Morgan, Mark (Elizabeth) Morgan, Beth (Chris) Haber, Sarah (Nick) Sirna, Megan (Terry) Gisi, Anne Alfredo and Katherine Alfredo; great-grandchildren, Andrew and Elizabeth Coleman, Syrena and Christina Morgan, Alex and Marcus Morgan, Emma, Claire and Grace Coleman, Anna and Sam Haber, Kaleigh and Hunter Morgan, Franz and Vivian Sirna, and Jack Gisi; sisters-in-law, Betty Zwack and Janaan Key; brothers-in-law, Michael

Harley P. Key

Harley P. Key, 80, of 8448 West Union No. 11, Littleton, Colo., 80123, formerly of Dubuque, died Feb. 20, 2001, in Littleton.

Services were held at Light of The World Catholic Church, Littleton.

He was born on July 4, 1920, in Potosi, Wis., son of Jesse B. and Syrena (McLaughlin) Key.

After graduating from Columbia (Loras) Academy he attended Loras College until Company A. Dubuque's National Guard unit, was federalized after Pearl Harbor was bombed. As part of the famous 34th "Red Bull" Division, Harley and his Dubuque buddies were sent first to Ireland, then later took part in the North African campaign (beginning at Oran, and including Tunisia's Hill 609, the Mateur Valley, and the Bizerte Peninsula) and Italian campaign (including Anzio and Casino). The Red Bull Division compiled a record 631 days of combat, more than any other division in the armed forces.

After returning home from the war, Harley married Janaan Wiedner at St. Patrick's in Dubuque. Harley then joined the Telegraph Herald for six years, three as sports editor. Afterwards, Harley moved to Denver and enjoyed a 31-year career in the sports department of the Rocky Mountain News.

Surviving are his loving wife, Janaan; three daughters, Lannie (John) McMichael, of Littleton, Karen (William) Ertmer, of Meeker, and Michele Chik, of Littleton; one son, Patrick (Jenny), of Flagstaff, Ariz.; seven grandchildren; a sister, Magretha (Key) Zwack, of Dubuque; as well as nieces and nephews.

When in good health Harley lived life to the fullest and had a contagious sense of humor. He will be remembered as a wonderful and loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle.

Harley's few surviving Company A buddies will now recall the last stanza of his mother Syrena's famous poem of 1945, The Boys Of Company A:

And we like to think, in that bright land
Where their souls were called by the High Command
They'll be standing guard till one by one
Each of their buddies fords life is done;
And in last review of Judgment Day
They'll all march again as Company A
