

The Secret Is Out

Miss O'Brian: "How do you manage to keep such good order in your class?"
Miss Bates: "I threaten to sit on them if they don't behave."

In Assembly.

Pauline: "May I speak to Robert Cushman?"

Miss McLellan (force of habit): "Yes, but don't sit with him."

Miss McClasky: "What is the feminine for cowboy?"

Paul Brumfield: "Milkmaid."

Miss Tichenor to pupil: "If you would take that gum out of your mouth, I would enjoy it much better."

All good boys love their sisters,
And so good have I grown
That I love other boys' sisters
As well as my own.

'Tis wrong for any maid to be
Abroad at night alone.
A chaperone she needs until
She calls some chap her own.

Miss McClasky, in public speaking class: "It seemed to me that Charles wandered off the point and just talked about everything. What was your point, Charles?"

Charles Ballard: "Well, how did you know I wandered off of it if you don't know what it is?"

Katherine Ashmead is surely getting to be a wild girl. She eats brick ice cream, rock candy, stone cake and drinks hard cider.

Miss Saupert, in civic class: "What was the Sherman act?"

Bertha Morgan: "Marching through Georgia."

Fred Kerr: "That girl is a live wire."

Maurice Wilkinson: "Introduce me, I want to be shocked."

Teacher: "What tense is this sentence, 'I am beautiful'?"

Robert Parrett: "I think it must be in the remote past,"

Miss Bates: "A fool asks more questions than a wise man can answer."

Mabel Daugherty: "No wonder so many pupils flunk in exams."

George Daugherty: "If Mr. Cockrum does not take back what he said I am going to leave school."

Mary Vivian: "What did he say?"

George Daugherty: "He told me that my presence was not desired."

Rose: "What's the matter with you and your girl?" I used to see you two in the hammock so much."

John Skeavington: "We fell out."
