

Kister: "But on what grounds does your father object to me?"
Mary Vivian: "On any grounds within a mile of our house."

Many are called, but few get up.

It is simply scandalous the way Maurice Wilkinson, our president, insists on vamping Freshmen and Sophomore girls. We thought it "far beneath his dignity."

Miss Bates: "What plants flourish most in very hot weather?"

Verle Baltzell: "Ice plants."

Miss Bates: "Another difference between plants and animals is that plants are not so susceptible to attachment to human beings as are animals."

The Country Boy: "How about burrs, Miss Bates?"

Maurice Wilkinson and Margaret Noble went to have their pictures taken for the annual and forgot to come back the second period. Give some people a little freedom and they make it an excursion.

Miss Saupert has been inquiring whether or not Maurice Wilkinson rouges just a little bit. She also is interested in the brand.

In public speaking class, after Luther Mayhugh's speech on enforcement of prohibition.

Miss McClasky: "Criticism?"

Friend Pupil: "Too dry."

Miss Hancock, telling of a friend who was going to dig up a human body to use in the study of anatomy, asks what is the first thing to do after digging up the body.

Clifford Haley: "Run."

Teacher: "Why is a school room like a Ford?"

Bright Pupil: "Because there is a bunch of nuts in the back and a crank in the front."

In place of flowers or candy, Maurice Wilkinson sent a manicure set to Oakland City as a Christmas offering. Isn't Maurice the practical boy?

A fox terrier six inches high and one foot long can dig a hole three feet long in one minute. To dig the Panama Canal in one month would only require a fox terrier eighty-nine feet long and ten feet high.

I would all womenkind were dead
Or banished o'er the sea ;
For they have been a bitter plague
This last six weeks to me.

MAURICE WILKINSON.

Today we're liable to fall,
Tomorrow up we climb.
For 'taint our nature to enjoy
Religion all the time.

LUTHER'S CONVERTS.
