

MARY GRACE WATSON

"Never love unless you can bear with all the faults of man."

AGNES MARIE WEIST

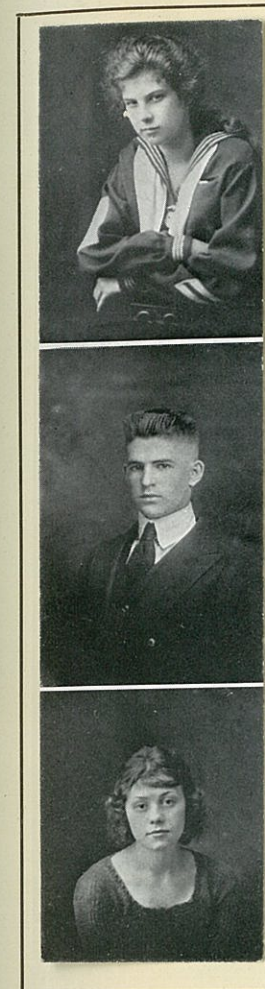

"Sees life through rose colored glasses."

MAURICE WILKINSON

"None but himself can be his parallel."

WALTER F. WILLIAMS

"A noisy, forward, interesting man."

DOROTHY WOLFE

"And knowing much she burned to know still more."

FLOYD W. YOCHUM

"Why this thushness?"

MARY VIVIAN ZILIAK

"However, I'm not denying the women are foolish; God Almighty made them to match the men."

THE WAIL

(My apologies to Tennyson)

Tests, tests, tests,
And the grades I got, Oh Gee!
I wish that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.
Yes, I see the rest go on
To the graduation day;
But oh for a grip of a vanished hour
That fled long ago in mere play.
Tests, tests, tests,
And the grades I got, Oh gee!
But the chance of the use of a day that s dead
Will never come back to me!

MARY MAUCK.
