

SENIOR CHRONICLES

(By MAE LAMB, MABEL DAUGHERTY and LUTHER MAYHUGH)

- Sept. 20—It has become a custom in our high school for Senior girls to adopt and rear Freshmen and Sophomore boys. Grace Watson, Margaret Noble and Mabel Daugherty are not allowing the custom to become obsolete.
- Sept. 26—Janice Jopling drops a dime on the assembly floor. A shuffle follows.
- Sept. 29—Greetings from our dear Miss Harsha to her sweet Vergil class.
- Sept. 30—Third period. The fire bell arouses George Daugherty from sweet slumbers.
- Oct. 2—Judge Yeager gives a talk to commerce and industry class on raising apples, illustrating with a basket of choice fruit. Seeing is believing, but sampling would have been more convincing.
- Oct. 3—Picnic at McCarty's grove. The chaperons, Miss O'Brian, Miss Bates and Mr. Hammond, greatly enjoy the walk from Baldwin Heights.
- Oct. 5—Elizabeth Milburn receives another lesson in undertaking.
- Oct. 7—Homer Kister's mustache is progressing rapidly. This is the 57th variety. Mary Vivian thinks this one the cutest yet.
- Oct. 10—Old Friend, Jimmie Robinson, tells us some camp stories.
- Oct. 13—Miss Oehlkuch returns to pay us a visit.
- Oct. 16—A most melodious cowbell is installed for signaling classes.
- Oct. 21—First six weeks' report cards are given out. No fainting reported.
- Oct. 22—Much unnecessary excitement was caused today when the news was spread that Marie Weist, the girl with the diamond, had left for Evansville, accompanied.
- Oct. 29—Handkerchiefs were in action, due to the mysterious white powder sprinkled in our midst.
- Oct. 30—Student government is introduced.
- Oct. 31—Floyd Baker makes an apologetic oration. Mouse turned loose in the assembly.
- Nov. 4—Elizabeth Milburn receives a dozen chrysanthemums. Was there a funeral in town that day?
- Nov. 5—Seniors have their pictures taken for the annual. (Fear not. We shall omit the old favorite.)
- Nov. 6—Miss McLellan's class entertains with a "Good English" play.
- Nov. 7—Miss McClasky's class gives a tableau.

THE CLOTHING MEN OF PRINCETON

It's through our doorway that the new styles first make their appearance in this city, because it is here that Society Brand Clothes are sold.

It's good business for young men to wear the kind of clothing and furnishings we offer, as the busy world sizes a young man up at first glance.

Clothes are one of any man's most valuable assets.
