

IDIOPATHIES

Katherine Ashmead: Strange and startling to say the least.
Beatrice Bruce: I don't care too much.
Charles Ballard: She wouldn't pass with a shove.
Paul Brumfield: Shoot!
Irene Cockriel: O, wouldn't it be swell!
Helen Carithers: O, you-u-u nut!
Raymond Dill: See, I told ye!
Helen Davidson: Why, why, why!
Mildred Davis: O, yes!
Mabel Daugherty: My stars!
Mary Eleanor Ewing: O slush!
Herbert Graetz: Just let me tell you something.
John Hilliard: Well, I'll swan!
Catherine Harter: O, Beatrice!
Janice Jopling: Isn't it the dearest thing!
Homer Kister: Still love me?
Fred Kerr: Gee whiz, woman!
Mae Lamb: Mehercule!
Harold Laib: O gee, I wonder!
Luther Mayhugh: Why—er—ah.
Elizabeth Milburn: I'm carazee about him
Rosa Morton: O heck.
Bertha Morgan: O, good night!
Mary Mauck: O, pity!
Margaret Noble: Goo'bye Rose, come see me some time.
Mildred Panchaud: Let's see.
Shirley Ryan: For ever more!
Bertha Stormont: Ditto, cabbage head!
Beatrice Skelton: How adorable!
Carl Schafer: That's what they all say!
Donald Shewmaker: Well I should say so!
Ruskin Swan: Well, I thought I'd die!
Lowell Taylor: Well, I'll be.
Walter Williams: I don't know-a-a.
Dorothy Wolfe: O, Himmel!
Marie Weist: I wonder what Stolly's doing.
Grace Watson: That's the greenest thing!
Maurice Wilkinson: Blockhead!
Floyd Yochum: Why—er—er.
Mary Vivian Ziliak: Aw, sit on a tack.

Possibly the Ford Weekly

Miss McClasky: "From what magazine did you get your article?"
Floyd Yochum: "From the Look-out."

Admiring Classmate: "I hear you are on the football team."
Robert: "Yes, I'm draw back on the team and way back in my studies."

SERVE--

This Bread on your table
Let it prove its Excellence

GENUINE

Butter-Nut BREAD

This Label
Protects You

"Rich as Butter—Sweet as a Nut"

Sold by all Good Grocers, 10c and 15c the Loaf
THERE IS NO BETTER BREAD MADE
We Also Have A Complete Line in Cakes, Pastries, Etc.

PRINCETON HOME BAKERY
THE HUDSON BAKING CO.

Phone 740-A

Princeton, Indiana