

George R. Kendrick, junior member of the firm of Williams & Kendrick, was born in Licking County, Ohio, July 22, 1852, a son of Thomas and Mary E (Reed) Kendrick, who were the parents of eight children, George, being the third child.

When he was a babe his parents removed to Cass County, Indiana, where he resided until 1874.

He early learned the wagon maker's trade and that has been his occupation since he was nineteen years old.

In 1874, he removed to Jay County, locating at Bryan, where he worked at his trade in a small way for three years. He then removed to Westchester and worked until 1888, then returned to Bryant and formed a partnership with Mr. Williams, and established the Bryant Wagon Works.

Biographical and Historical Record Jay County Indiana, Lewis Publishing Company, 1887

Transcribed by Jim Cox