

Lester (Bud) Aker, 47, 704 W. Race St., Portland, died February 17th, at 12:15 a.m., following an operation on February 4th at the Bluffton Clinic Hospital. The well-known plumbing shop proprietor is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mildred (Gibson) Aker, and the following:

Four daughters, Mrs. Betty Gee, Portland; Barbara K., Bonnie and Ruth, all at home; four sons, Bob, Salamonia; Max, Coldwater, Sam, in the Armed Forces, and Richard, at home; five sisters, Mrs. Ralph Renner, Portland, Mrs. Ora Stephens, Rochester, and Mrs. Arch Lykins, Portland; two brothers, Clarence Jr., Bluffton, and Jay in the Armed Forces; his father, Clarence, Portland; a grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Journay, Portland, and five grandchildren.

A member of the Eagles and the Moose lodges, Portland, Aker was born August 8th, 1905, in Selma, Indiana.

FindAGrave.com - contributed by Cindall